Adoptive Families Needed

Easter, Springtime — Now is the season to celebrate new life. Perhaps you can give a new beginning to a child who needs a family. Adoptive parents are sought for Oregon's older and "special needs" children. These include siblings, minority children, children over age six, and children with handicaps.

No fees are charged for the adoption study. A coalition of state and private agencies has been formed to help locate potential adoptive families. For more information, please contact Claudia Hutchison at the Special Needs Adoption Coalition office 222-9661. The address is 2301 NW Gisan, Portland, Oregon 97210.
