IRS Will Compute Tax For Some Filers

For some Oregon taxpayers who find working with numbers somewhat confusing, the Internal Revenue Service will figure taxes for filers of Forms 1040EZ and 1040A, and certain Form 1040 filers.
 Those desiring this assistance must fill in certain items on the return, attach Forms W-2, sign the return, and send it in before the April 15 deadline, IRS adds.
 To qualify for this service, taxpayers must have an income of $50,000 or less, not itemize deductions and not use Schedule F, "Income Averaging," or Form 2555, "Foreign Earned Income." Income must include only wages, salaries, tips, interest, dividends, pensions, and annuities, the IRS says.
 The agency will figure the tax in the way that benefits the taxpayers the most, IRS stresses. Since eligible persons need only complete certain questions, IRS says they will probably finish their returns faster and with less opportunity for error.
 If a refund is due, the IRS will figure the amount and send it to the taxpayer. If additional tax is owed, it will be computed and a bill sent for the balance. Neither interest nor the penalty for late payment will be charged if the bill for additional tax is paid within 30 days of the notice date, or by the due date of the return, whichever is later.
 For more information, taxpayers should check the instructions in their federal tax packages, or contact their local IRS office. The Portland telephone number is 221-3960, in Eugene 485-5079, in Salem 581-8721 or toll-free elsewhere in Oregon 1-800-424-1040.

Cameosis

Mondays will never be the same again after the fight and Cameo invaded the City of Roses in one sweep. The energy of the audience at the Civic was on maximum overdrive, but, unfortunately, the show was not.
 Being a long-time fan of Cameo (this was my 7th time), I was very disappointed. Don't get me wrong, it wasn't a total washout. The band's energy and showmanship was good, above average, even, but when I go to a concert, if it doesn't sound good, you've lost me. I was more than just lost. I wanted to be non-existent. On top of everything else, leader Larry Blackmon's voice was gone, and they attempted to cover the loss with a background singer and Cameo vocalist Tomi Jenkin's voices. It might have worked, if we could have heard them. Terrible sound and too many weeks on the road for one of the greatest show bands in the world. I'll be back next time.
