SBA Office Here to Offer Small Business Seminar

Saturday, April 11, the Small Business Administration is sponsoring a business training seminar for veterans and nonveterans - A how to seminar in starting, buying, managing and financing a small business. The seminar is co-sponsored by Portland Community College (P.C.C.), state and federal veterans groups. City of Portland Mayor J.E. Bud Clark is keynote speaker. Subjects covered by speakers from both public and private sectors will be: marketing, legal structures, licensing, financing, and success and failure factors.

John Gilman, Portland District Director, said, "We have made assistance to veterans a priority of the district. We are making special efforts not only to assist veterans with loans, but also to help veteran-owned small firms obtain federal procurement contracts and provide the management training and counseling any small business needs to expand and survive."

The conference is being held at Portland Community College, Sylvania Campus, CC Building, 12000 S.W. 49th Avenue, Portland, Oregon. Preregistration fee - $15.00. On-site registration - $25.00. Includes lunch and materials.

For further information and registration, call P.C.C., Rosalyn Menashe, Program Coordinator at 244-6111, Extension 2410.
