

Jugglers lead the 500 people that attended the memorial and tree planting ceremony in memory of Benjamin Linder, the Portlander killed in Nicaragua by U.S. backed counter-revolutionary forces.

The memorial was held at Chapman School where Linder went to school as a youngster. The tree was planted in the adjoining park. Photo by Richard J. Brown

The first fraternity house was occupied in 1839 by the Williams Chapter of the Kappa Alpha Society at Williams College, Williamstown, Mass.

Sir John Dalryell of Binns, England, had a sea anemone for a pet. It lived 66 years. He called it Grannie.

One Day Workshop

Meridian Park Hospital, Tualatin, will offer a one-day workshop "Dealing With Difficult People" on Saturday, May 23, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the hospital.

Participants will learn how to deal positively with the anger and frustration that difficult people can cause, whether they're co-workers, clients, family or friends. Also covered will be identifying the difficult person's motivations, reinforcing positive behavior, and how to be less of a target.

Cost of the workshop is $25, which includes lunch. For more information or to register, call the Community Education Department at the hospital, 692-2656.

Something's Cooking

One of the newest trends among food cognoscenti is regional American fare. Find out what it's all about at "Regional American Cooking," Alameda Community School, 2732 NE Fremont. The classes are held four consecutive Tuesdays beginning May 5 from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Each week participants will explore different American menus with Eloise Carson, professional cook and caterer. Seasonal ingredients will bring out the best in New England, New Orleans, Northwest, and Southwest cuisines. The fee is $25 plus $15 for materials.

"MADD About Knitting"

Mothers Against Drunk Driving, MADD, will benefit from a unique fashion show to be held Wednesday, June 10, 1987 at 7:00 p.m. at the Embassy Suites Hotel, 9000 S.W. Washington Square Road, Tigard, Oregon. International designs will be worn by models from the Gioera LaVonne Finishing, Fashion and Modeling School. Sponsors of the show are Kimberly Market Corporation, Oregon Craft and Floral Supply Company and Das Yarn Haus. Elaine Busby of P.M. Magazine will narrate the program.

"This fashion show is so unique because all the fashions can be created by individuals using the Bond Knitting Frame" said Marilyn Weeks of Kimberly Market Corporation. "And, it goes for such a good cause, getting drunk drivers off the roads!"

The evening will begin with a light buffet. Then the fashion show will debut followed by a drawing for door prizes, including a weekly floral bouquet for one year, a limousine service, a weekend get-away, and many more.

Limited seating is available. Tickets can be ordered for $25.00 each by contacting MADD, P.O. Box 5461, Oregon City, OR, 97045 or by calling 656-4805. All proceeds will go to MADD.

The annual per capita consumption of soap in the United States is about forty pounds.
