OMSI Announces Free Day

Here's your chance to have FUN FUN FUN cause OMSI's takin' your admission price away! On May 29th from 12 - 8 p.m. OMSI will throw open its doors in a very "free" way and it's happening all day long!

This is your chance to come on up and experience fun under construction. STRUCTURES is OMSI's latest traveling exhibit which puts you in a construction hat. 14 hands-on exhibits make up this traveling display on tour from the Franklin Institute Science Museum in Philadelphia.

For the adventuresome at heart, OMSI is showcasing the brand new Gyrotron. This little hummer will spin and toss you into oblivion. Used by astronauts to simulate the conditions of a tumbling spacecraft, the Gyrotron is proving to be the thrill of a lifetime.

All this plus a whole day of demonstrations, activities for little visitors in Discovery Space and the best part of all... free admission, awaits you on May 29th.

For more information, call OMSI at 222-2828.

Summer Fashions for Kids

The Vancouver Avenue Baptist Church will host a "Garden Style Show" Sunday, May 24, 1987, at four o'clock in the afternoon. The show will feature the latest in summer fashions from Kids 4 Sure, Jay Jacobs and Avior Fashions. Congregation members will model the clothing. The show's emphasis will be placed on clothing suitable for play and special occasions. It will cater to an average population with sizes ranging from petite to large framed women.

Proceeds from the show will help pay for renovation of a former Portland Learning Center into a non-denominational Convention Center located at 220 NE Beech. Dr. O.B. Williams, president of the General Baptist Convention of the Northwest-Oregon and Washington, and pastor of the Vancouver Avenue First Baptist Church, said the Convention bought the property to provide a base for greater community outreach and religious education. They hope to also provide a Senior Day Care Center. The convention hopes the renovation of the auditorium will be finished by July of 1987. The estimated cost for completion of the auditorium is $60,000.00. If you would like to donate materials, pianos, organ, furnishings, etc., you may contact the church office at 282-9496.

The style show hopes to raise $500.00. Donations will be accepted at the door.

EXTRA: We are pleased to include fashions from Hot City.

"I worked hard for this," said Roy Pittman, as he received his third "Spirit of Portland" award. Pittman's award was a result of his work with young people. The awards were presented to Pittman, as well as to other individuals and groups, by the City Council last week. Photo by Richard J. Brown

"MADD About Knitting"

Mothers Against Drunk Driving, MADD, will benefit from an unique fashion show to be held Wednesday, June 10, 1987 at 7:00 p.m. at the Embassy Suites Hotel, 9000 S.W. Washington Square Road, Tigard, Oregon. International designs will be worn by models from the Glorea LaVonne Finishing, Fashion and Modeling School. Sponsors of the show are Kimberly Market Corporation, Oregon Craft and Floral Supply Company and Das Yarn Haus. Elaine Busby of P.M. Magazine will narrate the program.

"This fashion show is so unique because all the fashions can be created by individuals using the Bond Knitting Frame" said Marilyn Weeks of Kimberly Market Corporation. "And, it goes for such a good cause, getting drunk drivers off the roads!"

The evening will begin with a light buffet. Then the fashion show will debut followed by a drawing for door prizes, including a weekly floral bouquet for one year, a limousine service, a weekend get-away, and many more.

Limited seating is available. Tickets can be ordered for $25.00 each by contacting MADD, P.O. Box 5461, Oregon City, OR, 97045 or by calling 656-4805. All proceeds will go to MADD.
