Schedule

The twelve members of the 1987 Rose Festival Court are already involved in making dozens of visits throughout the Portland area and the entire state in preparation for the beginning of the Festival, May 29.

The court extended to 12 members this year with the addition of Parkrose High School. The school is now within the city limits of Portland, which makes it an eligible school, even though it is not part of the Portland School District.

The princesses have been given an outstanding wardrobe from many local donors including Duffel/Sportco, First Interstate Bank, Flowers Tommy Luke, Fred Meyer, Jantzen, J.M. Vranizan Co., Meier & Frank, Mervyn's, Nike, Parker's Bridal Salon, Pendleton Woolen Mills, The Curlery, Ltd., Shedrain & White Stag.

Between now and the end of the Rose Festival, they will make literally hundreds of public appearances and become the most visible ambassadors of the Rose Festival.

One of the 12 court members will be selected Queen at the Lloyd Center/Rose Festival Queen Coronation May 29 at the Civic Auditorium. The Coronation program will feature entertainment by "Up With People," and will be telecast live over KATU-TV.
