Donation Keeps Clinic Open

The spirit of giving, sharing and caring about the community was demonstrated in the recently held Tea given in honor of the Nurse Practitioner Community Health Clinic (NPCHC). The Portland Chapter of Jack & Jill of America, Inc., donated over $500 to this community-based, grass-roots pediatric health care clinic whose mission is to serve the community (N/NE) and provide a higher quality of service to those regardless of ability to pay. The only restriction is age, being a pediatric practitioner, the limit is 21 years of age.

The benevolence of the clinic has also become its achilles heel and without the support of the local chapter of Jack & Jill services would have been discontinued the following week the NPCHC received the funds.

Children are our greatest resource, and without the support and contributions, our resource would be at risk for compromised health care.

An historical first: Nora Jean Houston delivered her first sermon at Morning Star Baptist Church in N.E. Portland, Sunday, May 24, 1987. Ms. Houston is the first woman preacher among Portland's Black Baptist congregations. "She has before her a challenge, but an even greater reward," said Dr. T. L. Lewis, Pastor at Morning Star. Counselors (who must be at least 18 years of age) may bring their children who are three years of age or older to camp free of charge. Both men and women may be counselors and previous experience is not necessary because training will be provided.

A camp day is from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Sessions run two weeks Monday through Thursday.

For the location of a day camp near you, contact the Portland Area Council of Camp Fire, 718 W. Burnside, Portland or call 224-7800.

Volunteers Needed to Share Outdoor Adventures in Summer of 1987

Oregonians enjoy some of the greatest outdoor recreation areas in the country. We can paddle raft the many white water rivers, sail the more quiet ones, hike in the mountains or the Columbia Gorge or camp by the roaring Pacific Ocean. SOAR (Shared Outdoor Adventure Recreation) helps make these same opportunities available to adults with physical disabilities. We invite you to share your love of sailing, hiking, rafting, bicycling, kayaking, camping, rock climbing and other adventures with us this summer. Our volunteer training session will be held on June 3rd, from 6:00 to 8:30 p.m. at the Easter Seal Center, 5757 SW Macadam, Portland. Join us then or call 238-1613 for more information.
