

"Let's Do It Again" was the theme of the Eliot Reunion held at Eliot School, now Tubman Middle School, Friday evening. About 100 former students, teachers and parents attended the affair and listened as speakers reflected on past experiences and events. Among those enjoying the evening were L-R Ahmad Mohamed, Louise Payne, Joseph Nunn, James Moon, Emma Chiles, Dennis Payne and Joyce Carter.

Diabetes Classes Slated

A series of Diabetes Education classes is planned Monday through Thursday, June 22-25, at Meridian Park Hospital, Tualatin.

Scheduled from 6:00 - 9:00 p.m. in the hospital cafeteria conference room, the series is designed to teach diabetics the skills necessary to manage their illness, to help adapt these management skills into already-existing lifestyles, and to help set realistic goals for diabetes control.

Cost is $110 per client, or $27.50 per session, and with physician referral, is covered by Medicare and most major insurance carriers. Family members are welcome to attend at no additional charge.

This session is taught by hospital Diabetes Educator Cindi Ballas, R.N., Dietitian Martha Hirsch, R.D., Physical Therapist Pat Quintana, R.P.T., and Staff Physicians Kenneth Martin, M.D. and Donald Bouma, M.D.

For more information and pre-registration, call 692-2656.

CPR Classes Scheduled

Two classes in Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) are scheduled in June at Meridian Park Hospital, Tualatin. The classes are scheduled on Monday, June 22, from 1-5 pm, and June 24 from 6-10 pm. The new, 1987 CPR standards from the American Heart Association are used in the Meridian Park curriculum. The new standards are of particular interest to people of the community who wish to participate in these basic life support classes as they are easier to learn and remember in an emergency.

Meridian Park's classes teach a one-person rescue technique. Infant and child CPR are optional, but are also available during the class times, for those who wish to participate. Group sessions may be arranged.

Fee for the four hour class is $10, and pre-registration is required. For registration/information call the Community Education office at the Tualatin hospital, 692-2656.

Health Education Classes: Cancer

"Community Resources for Cancer Patients, Families and Others Who Care," Wednesday, June 24, 7 p.m., Discovery Center, Tigard, is the topic for discussion in the second session of the new health education program co-sponsored by Meridian Park Hospital and the American Cancer Society as an effort to provide appropriate health care information to the community.

Linda Pedersen, R.N., from Meridian Park Hospital will discuss the various community resources available to cancer patients, their families and friends, or anyone interested in assisting those with cancer.

For additional information, contact the community education department at the Tualatin hospital.
