RUN/DMC and The Beastie Boys Fact or Fiction?

by Ken Covington

In anticipation of Portland's first major Hip Hop or Rapp concert, a substantial number of parents and citizens have expressed deep concern about this particular event.

Ring, ring, ring—my phone does every few minutes, almost driving me to the point of no return. SOMEBODY CALL DAMMASCH!

It's Monday morning, just seven days from show day, and Portland's ultra-conservative attitude is starting to show. "That's just not the kind of concert we want our kids to attend." Why the heck not! They've been listening to the records for the last few months, and you didn't say too much then. And what about this, "They've had riots at their shows!" Bull, Bull, Bull. They did a 65-city tour last year (one of them at the Tacoma Dome on New Year's Eve) and only had trouble at one in Southern California, and have since stepped up their security to ensure that there will be no repeats.

On to the next great myth: RUN/DMC uses explicit and lewd language. Wrong again. RUN/DMC is the Creme d'la Creme, The Kings of Rapp, breaking every record and rule pertaining to music of its kind, mostly due to the sensitivity to everyday issues and positive messages that are the essential roots of RUN/DMC.

RUN/DMC was the only act of its kind to be included in the Live Aid benefit and has won numerous awards, from Black Music awards to Grammys, and I don't think it was for their explicit and lewd language.

On the other hand The Beastie Boys have been dubbed "The Rude Boys of Rapp and Roll". Hublien Inc. has reported twice the sales of Brass Monkey since the release of the Beastie's record of the same name.

The Beastie Boys are not really new to rapp, having released previous albums, but with the release of the triple platinum "Licensed To Ill", the bad-boy image has them at the top of the charts and on the tip of everybody's tongue. Kids have always identified with rebellious lyrics, all the way back to the days of Cab Calloway.

All in all, it's about time for Oregonians to wake up to the fact that it is 1987, and in order to grow, you need to open your mind and check out the facts and not listen to fiction.

I think that parents are getting excited mostly because of the way the kids are reacting to the coming event. And I think we should also remember that school's out. It's the start of summer, and the kids just want to let off some steam.

Reunion

The Cleveland High School class of 1967 has scheduled its 20-year reunion for the weekend of August 7. A Friday evening get-together at the Rafters restaurant is slated for alumni only. Saturday evening the activity moves to the Columbia River Red Lion, with a buffet and dance for alums and their spouses. Sunday afternoon is family day at Woodstock Park.

For more information about reunion activities, or if you can help locate missing and out-of-state graduates, call Gary Purpura, 775-2461 or Joanne Fuller Johns, 254-0113.

Register Now for Teen Bike Trips!

A week-long bicycle trip will be a summer adventure never to be forgotten! Join an experienced leader and counselors to explore and camp at different parks. All trips include outdoor camping, cooking, swimming, and, of course, lots of cycling. The Washington County YMCA offers six separate trips for teenagers going into grades 8 through 12 in the fall. The week-long trips will either go to the San Juan Islands, or the San Juans and Victoria, B. C.

Each cyclist must furnish his/her own 10 speed bike, helmet, saddlebags, and camping gear. Cyclists are required to attend one orientation and two check-out rides in order to qualify for the trip.

Additional Adult Leaders and Counselors are needed for all trips. If interested in volunteering, please contact Charlie at 294-3345.

Spaces in all trips are limited. Pre-registration is required. For cost and dates, and registration materials, please call the YMCA office at 294-3345. Join the fun!!!!
