PHOTOPHONE FIX — Nissan's new Fix Hot-Line, utilizing a "Photophone" video telephone, monitor and video printer, cuts down considerably the time it takes service departments at Nissan dealerships to solve difficult repair problems. The service is based at Nissan Motor Corp. in U.S.A. headquarters in Carson, Calif. There is also an outlet at Nissan Ltd., in Tokyo. Nissan U.S. service representatives can show actual parts to Japanese engineers via crisp, clear pictures over an ordinary phone line.
