PassinArt: A Theatre Company Will Present "Split Second"

PassinArt: A Theatre Company will present "Split Second", a forceful drama, by Dennis McIntyre July 3rd - July 26th at the Interstate Firehouse Cultural Center (5340 N. Interstate) on Fridays and Saturdays at 8 p.m., with Sunday matinees at 2 p.m. Discount tickets prices for Sunday performances are available. Tickets are $7.00 Friday/Saturday, and $5.00 on Sunday.

"Split Second" is a compelling drama that depicts the experiences of a young Black police officer when faced with the consequences of one of his "split second" decisions. A decision that not only impacts his life, but that of his family. The play takes a hard look at the differences between the values of the young police officer and that of his father (a retired policeman); and what happens to a family when they suddenly find themselves caught up in the tragedy of a split second decision.

The Company plans to have a special community forum Sunday, July 19th immediately following the play at 4 p.m. The purpose of this forum will be to discuss the issues raised in the play (i.e. values, racism; and how our "split second" decisions impact issues we all face in our daily lives.

"Split Second" will be directed by Michael J. Grant, co-founder and artistic director of PassinArt. His directing credits include "The Resurrection of Lady Lester" (IFCC); "Funnyhouse of a Negro" (PassinArt); and "Portraits in Black: A Theatre Presentation (IFCC). Grant is also an actor, writer, and musician. Cast members include Henry Melson (Ceremonies in Dark Old Men, Spell No. 7); Julie Serguinia (A Raisin in the Sun); Gunnar Forland, Anthony Baggette; Michael Holiday (Little Shop of Horror); and Neal Thomas.

"Split Second is sponsored in part through grants from the Metropolitan Arts Commission and Oregon Arts Commission.

The first labor organization in the United States was formed by the Boston shoemakers and barrelmakers in 1648.
