The Portland Observer newspaper recently moved to a more modern and spacious facility at 5011 N.E. 26th Ave.

The 4,975 square foot facility features executive offices, a dark room for photographic development, a complete layout/paste-up section and a large storage area.

The building offers the Observer the opportunity to provide more expanded services to its advertisers and customers.

The Portland Observer will provide these services:

typesetting, layout, PMTs,
poster design, souvenir booklets, flyers,
resumes and letterhead.

The Observer's telephone numbers remain the same:
