

Oregon Business Week Beckoning Area Students

Familiar Nike trademark graces official memento T-shirts that are uniform-of-the-day for high school students and teachers attending the eighth-annual Oregon Business Week this August on Monmouth campus of Western Oregon State College. In-kind contribution by Beaverton sportswear manufacturer is in addition to expense-paid scholarships provided by more than 500 businesses, organizations, and individuals. Forest Grove seniors modeling shirts from left are Chris Devall, Heather Cross, Shannon Haach and Christy Lund. Red-trimmed white shirts are souvenirs of week-long business learning experience.

World War II Comrades Sought

The 157th Infantry Association is making a concentrated effort to locate all former members of the 157th Infantry Regiment and the 158th Field Artillery. These units were part of the 45th Infantry Division during World War II, and had an outstanding record of combat while fighting in Sicily, Italy, France and Germany.

The Association conducts an annual reunion and a quarterly newsletter is sent to each member.

If you served, or know of anyone who served with either of these units, please contact Ralph W. Fink, 19 Williamsburg, Hershey, PA 17033; Phone: 717-533-5482.

Especially being sought is Wallace McKenzie who is known to have lived in Portland many years ago. Perhaps a relative or friend can give us information as to his current whereabouts.

Women's Rights Day Celebration

"The Role of Black Women in the Fight for Women's Suffrage" will be discussed by guest speaker Black feminist educator Milly Harmon. Join us in honoring Black women leaders of the struggle for women's right to vote who broke ground in the women's and Black movements, fighting racism in one and sexism in the other, connecting and strengthening both. Radical Women meeting is on Thursday, August 20, 6:30 p.m., Multnomah County Central Library, 801 S.W. 10th Avenue. Everyone is welcome. For more information call 249-8067. Wheelchair accessible.

Summer Classes at The Oregon Art Institute

The future is in your hands at the Oregon Art Institute! Studio art classes ranging from sculpture, portraiture, illustration, computer graphics, costume design, photography and drawing and painting are offered all summer long. Classes meet one or two evenings a week from 6:30 pm to 9:30 pm and during the day for children. The Art Institute's studios are open to parents, children, adults, teachers, high school students and seniors of all levels of accomplishment. Call 226-0462 for registration and a free brochure.

The Oregon Art Institute is the oldest and largest visual arts organization in the state and operates the Pacific Northwest College of Art, the Portland Art Museum and the Northwest Film and Video Center. The Art Institute is a not-for-profit organization.
