

MATERIALS SCIENTIST

Tenure track position available with rank and salary open, to join an existing polymer science group and serve as the principal liaison with a developing materials science program. The appropriate individual must develop a strong research program and participate in both undergraduate and graduate instruction. Preference will be given to candidates with research interests in morphology, rheology, or structure-property relationships, but strong candidates in other areas will be considered. This position is contingent upon funding.

Interested applicants, please submit vitae, a brief statement of your research program, three letters of recommendation and transcripts by October 15, 1987 to: Dr. Samuel P. Sawan, Department of Chemistry, University of Lowell, One University Avenue, Lowell, MA 01854.

*The University of Lowell is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action, Title IX, 504 Employer*

University of
Lowell

RADIATION SAFETY OFFICER

Will direct operation of the Radiation Safety Program including both routine and emergency response requirements for a one megawatt research reactor, Van de Graff accelerators, x-ray machines and analytical instrumentation which emits ionizing radiation, a one million curie cobalt-60 irradiation facility and laboratories involved with radionuclide labeling and other applications of radionuclides. The applicant should have a minimum of a Master's degree in Health Physics/Radiation Science and Protection and at least five years of professional experience in operational health physics. Experience in an operational Program at a university is desirable, although not required. Certifications or eligibility for certification in Health Physics by the American Board of Health Physics is also desirable.

Interested candidates, please submit resume by August 14, 1987 to: Dr. Leon Beghian, Associate Vice President for Research, University of Lowell, Lowell, MA 01854.

*The University of Lowell is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action, Title IX, 504 Employer*

University of
Lowell

DIRECTOR OF ADMINISTRATION Cancer Hospital and Research Institute

The Ohio State University invites applications for the position of Director of Administration for the university's Cancer Hospital and Research Institute. This hospital and institute will be housed in a 200,000 square foot, 12 story, 160-bed facility to be completed in 1988.

The selected individual, under the direction of the Executive Director of the University Hospital and the Director of the Cancer Hospital and Research Institute, will be responsible for coordinating the administrative and budgeting activities of the cancer hospital, insuring administrative cooperation between facilities, interacting with administrators, assisting with policies and procedures and overseeing projects relating to teaching and research.

The qualified applicant will have a Master's degree in Hospital Administration or equivalent combination of education and experience. Extensive academic health center experience is highly desirable. Demonstrated management skills, knowledge of research, governmental relations, and budgeting is also desirable.

*The Ohio State University is an Equal Opportunity/
Affirmative Action Employer. Qualified women and minorities are encouraged to apply. A competitive salary and benefits program is offered. Resumes and the names of 2 references may be sent to: Nancy Siclair, Special Assistant to the Vice President for Health Services, 200 D Meiling Hall, 370 W. Ninth Avenue, Columbus, OH 43210.*

University of Pittsburgh Director of Placement

The Joseph M. Katz Graduate School of Business at the University of Pittsburgh is seeking a Director of MBA Placement. Candidates should have significant experience in placement or recruitment, broad knowledge of corporate employment processes, familiarity with an academic environment, strong organizational abilities, and excellent communication and interpersonal skills.

Responsibilities include: directing all placement activities; aggressively securing companies to recruit on campus which will require extensive travel initially; developing links with business and the community; supervising the placement office and its professional staff; and implementing special programs to prepare students for placement.

Salary negotiable. Position available September 1987. Please forward statement of interest and resume to Joyce Nolle, Human Resources, 172 Thackeray Hall, University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, PA 15260.