

Oscar Eason Jr. (L), Blacks in Government (B.I.G.), National Board of Directors Chairman; and Willis Tate (C), B.I.G. Regional Director, Region X were on hand last week to honor Margaret Carter (R) as the newly elected B.I.G. Region X Council President. A reception hosted by Dick Bogle, Gladys McCoy and Mary Wendy Roberts was held at PCC

Cascade. Eason used the occasion to tell of B.I.G.'s involvement in issues in Seattle around the off-loading of ships carrying cargo from S. Africa and the Affirmative Action policies at Frederick & Nelsons. He also challenged the Portland group to become active around those issues.

PCC Invites Enrollment in Early Childhood Education Program

Portland Community College has fall term openings for day and evening classes in Early Childhood Education at Sylvania Campus, 12000 S.W. 49th Ave.

In addition, two ECE classes will be available through PCC Telecourse on Rogers and Willamette Cable Channel 10.

The ECE program trains students to be teachers of young children in child-care settings. PCC offers certificates of completion for those who finish 45 credit hours, and the Associate of Applied Science degree, based on completion of 90 credit hours.

Further information is available from the PCC Home Economics Department, 244-6111, Ext. 4216.
