Garland Lee Thompson as Ishi.

"Wild Indian" Opens Season

The IFCC Theatre will open its 1987-88 season with the Northwest premiere of "Wild Indian" by Theodore Shank. The play opens September 18 at 8 p.m. at the Interstate Firehouse Cultural Center, 5340 N. Interstate, and will continue through October 18.

"Wild Indian" is a fictionalized drama based upon the true story of Ishi, the last of the Yahi tribe in Northern California, and the anthropologist who became his guardian. Ishi became a living exhibit in the San Francisco Museum of Anthropology under observation and study by the anthropologist. The play takes place in the museum's setting of Ishi's habitat where Ishi lived for the remainder of his life. Playwright Theodore Shank who will attend the opening performance, also introduces two fictional characters - Hilary Addison as the female assistant to the anthropologist and Wing Su, a second generation Chinese-American as his secretary to delineate the issue of acculturation, and the ability of adaptation as the key to survival.

"Wild Indian" plays at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday and at 2 p.m. on Sunday, September 18 through October 18. Tickets are $10 on Friday and Saturday and $9 on Sunday. A special reception for author Theodore Shank will follow the opening performance September 18, with a $1 donation requested.

Subscriptions to the 1987-88 IFCC Theatre Season are available at a discount over single ticket prices. The 1987-88 Season under Managing Director Sue Busby, also includes the West Coast premiere of "Doin' the Reality Rag" by Lawrence Perkins, and Oregon premieres of both "Home-land" by Salaelo Maredi and Steve Friedman, and "Tea" by Velina Hasu Houston.

For Season Subscriptions, or "Wild Indian" ticket reservations, call the IFCC Theatre, 243-7930, from 10 a.m. - 5 p.m., Monday through Friday.
