Parents Staying Active at Emanuel

An Active Parenting class is offered at Emanuel Hospital & Health Center for parents of children ages 2 through 18. It is sponsored by the Child Development Department.

Active Parenting is an innovative, video-based program designed to enhance child/parent relationships. In this six-part series of two-hour sessions, emphasis is focused on understanding child behavior, developing the child's sense of responsibility and winning cooperation. The program helps parents make sense out of their child's behavior and gives concrete guidelines to put parenting plans into action. Family enrichment activities are stressed.

Classes begin in September at Emanuel. To register, call the Community Health Education Department at Emanuel, 280-4284.

Public Service Announcement

Add to your art collection, have a fabulous evening and help fund care desperately needed for AIDS patients at Portland's first annual ART/AIDS Benefit. Over 300 artists and 28 galleries are participating in ART/AIDS Gallery Walk and sale. Finish with a "Visual Experience" and refreshments in the Oregon Art Institute's Sculpture Court. All proceeds will be used to provide long-term care and education about AIDS. ART/AIDS, 4:00 p.m., Sunday, October 11.

For ticket information, call Powell's Bookstore, 228-1108.

State Strike Affects Low-Income Clients

Welfare offices throughout the Portland area are either closed or offering only limited services. Are your needs for food, housing, daycare or medical assistance being put off by welfare? Have you been unable to receive the appointment you need? Have you had a reduction in income and been told it won't be reflected in your October benefits?

If you have had any of these problems, Legal Aid's Welfare Rights Hotline can help. The Hotline phone number is 241-4111. We are open 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Finding "Mr./Ms. Right"

The Personal Ads section in many publications is often followed more avidly than the ins and outs of Gary Hart. Now you can make this section of the newspaper work for you.

Fulton Park Community Center, 68 SW Miles, is offering a one-session workshop "Finding Love Through the Personal Ads". You'll learn how to decipher these ads, how to compose and place them to ensure a large number of responses, plus get tips for that crucial first meeting.

The session meets Tuesday, October 13, from 7 to 8:30 P.M. The fee is $3.00.

Kids' Day Off—October

Fulton Park Community Center, 68 S.W. Miles, 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., ages 5 to 11. Meet at Fulton for arts, crafts, and games. Then ride Tri-Met to Mt. Scott Community Center for rollerskating. Have pizza for lunch and return to Markham Community School for a movie and popcorn. The fee is $18.00, which includes all admission and transportation fees.

1987 St. Vincent de Paul Christmas Food Drive

St. Vincent de Paul is once again preparing for its annual Christmas Food Drive, the largest door to door food drive in the U.S. Last year, more than 5,000 volunteers distributed 332,000 pounds of food to feed 8,414 needy families.

Contribution of non-perishable food will be collected by volunteers in Portland neighborhoods Saturdays, December 5 and 12.

Food will be delivered to needy families Saturday, December 19.

St. Vincent de Paul needs volunteers to help answer phones and sort and pack food. To volunteer, call St. Vincent de Paul at 235-8431.

Sweet vs. Sweetened.

When raisins with sugar. Now which raisin bran would you rather give your family?

THAT'S THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN POST® NATURAL RAISIN BRAN AND KELLOGG'S® RAISIN BRAN.

POST® is loaded with plump, juicy raisins that are naturally sweet through and through. Kellogg's® coats

Post NATURAL RAISIN BRAN

THE SWEETNESS IS IN THE RAISINS, NOT ON THEM.
