M.A.R.I.'s Master Showcase

M.A.R.I., Portland's newest and only exclusive minority talent agency, highlighted their talents at the new Portland Performing Arts Center in one of the best run and entertaining showcases I've ever had the pleasure of attending. There were actors, dancers, rappers, singers, bands and models. Joe "Bean" Keller and Ronee Walker are not only pursuing their dreams, but also helping others to realize their own. This is one of the best illustrations of, when we all come together and work in the right direction, how much we can accomplish on our own. Hats off to all involved.

Flirt Band Gettin' Busy

Randy Smith and the Flirt Band have not disappeared at all. They have been invading the downtown music scene at places such as Key Largo, The Pass Club, Confetti's and O'Callahan's in Beaverton. The group appeared in Vancouver, B.C., and returned home to, as band leader Randy Smith says, "Get ready to take it to the next phase."

The Untouchable Krew

The Rose City's most visible rapp band has been increasing their following playing to mostly White audiences by popular demand. The Satyricon, The Wavehouse Club in Vancouver, B.C., and Reed College have been the locations of the Untouchable Krew's last three appearances. Says leader Larry Bell, "At first we (The Krew) were surprised, but I guess if you look at Billboard Magazine and realize people are people, you can really see the growth and demand for the kind of music we play." After all, music is the universal language.

Rapp Master Ronnie

Storefront Theatre presents a nice and well-deserved kick in the butt to the waning Reagan administration for everything from Grenada to Dork (I mean Bork). Those of us in the lower income brackets may find this one a little hard to laugh at, especially if you've experienced some of the humiliations from our puppet president's empty but well-delivered statements. I'm not rich and I managed to laugh and learn. Whhheelllll, what can I say?

"The Miracle Worker"

The Columbia Theatre Company is holding auditions for "The Miracle Worker" on Nov. 22nd at 3:00 p.m. and Nov. 23rd at 7:30 p.m., at 2021 S.E. Hawthorne Blvd. Needed are three men, two 40-50 years old, and 1 twenty-five year old; two women, 1 aged 50-60 and one 20-30 years old; one adult Black woman; one Black child (male) 8-12 years old; and three other children, ages 6-15. Prepare a one-minute monologue from a American drama and readings from the script requiring a heavy southern accent.

Thad Spencer Goes International

Former heavyweight boxer/turned promoter Thad Spencer has been hard at work from his Berkeley, California, offices keeping his new fight game together. On top of his emergence in the Pacific Northwest this summer at the Oregon State Fair, Thad has been active at the Dunes in Los Vegas and now is looking to fight George Forman in Japan in early 1988. This will be followed by a bout with the dynamic Mr. Mike Tyson. Thad assures me that everything is looking 100% and to keep my eyes on HBO or ESPN to watch him grow. Hail to the Pacific Northwest's own Don King.

Toy and Joymakers Gearing Up

It's that time of the year again and our Toy and Joymakers are gearing up for another very busy season.

Here's our point — if you can fit our program into yours, you would be assisting in promoting a very worthwhile community effort, the Portland Fire Bureau Toy and Joymakers, a Portland tradition for 73 years.

This year, as in the past, we will be distributing some 100,000 toys to approximately 30,000 needy children. This can only be done with the aid of the community supplying our needs in the form of new or very repairable toys and/or cash donations. (It's all tax deductible.)

If you can assist us in any way as part of your programming, please call (248-0203) and we will respond with our sirens screaming.

Model Train Show is on the Right Track

All aboard for the Portland Memorial Coliseum. Organizers of the Great American Train Show report that's where you will find 10,000 model trains on display.

The train show, which runs Saturday and Sunday, November 28th & 29th, 1987, at the Portland Memorial Coliseum, is designed to appeal to youngsters as well as to adults who have made trains a hobby or professional interest. Visitors to the show will find all shapes, sizes and brands of models, the kind youngsters have played with for generations, as well as new ones just coming down the tracks for today's train enthusiasts. In addition to the model trains on display, the show features operating layouts in different scales and tables of new train related merchandise.

HOURS are from Noon to 6 p.m. both Saturday and Sunday. Admission is $4.00 for adults and children under 12 admitted free with an adult.
