In Memory Of ...

Governor Richard Lewis
May 11, 1917 - July 25, 1988

Governor Richard Lewis was born May 11, 1917, in Eldorado, Arkansas. He was the only child born during the union of the late Richard Lewis of St. Louis, Missouri, and the late Arena (Barnes) Lewis of Eldorado, Arkansas.

He came to Oregon to work in the shipyards in 1942. On Friday, April 13, 1945, he was united in holy matrimony with Elsie M. James of Atlanta Texas, by the Rev. D. E. Kimbrough in Vancouver, Washington. They were happily married over 43 years.

Governor Lewis worked as a welder at the Swan Island shipyards until World War II was over after which he was employed by Sears, Roebuck Co. Next, he was offered and accepted positions with the Union Pacific Railroad and the Southern Pacific Railroad, respectively, where he was employed until 1951. Next he moved to Vernonia, Oregon, where he worked in the sawmills until he moved back to Portland in 1952 to reactivate his employment with Southern Pacific Railroad as well as holding a position as a Special Policeman with the City of Portland for over 10 years. He retired in 1973 as a polisher with Modern Firescreen. However, following his retirement he worked in several part-time and volunteer positions, which included a position as a Foster Grandparent in the Portland Public Schools which he enjoyed immensely.

Other activities and hobbies during his lifespan of 71 years included bass singer with the gospel group known as the 'Harmonizing Five Quartet' from approximately 1942 to 1955, as well as fishing and hunting. Most important, however, he was a member of Philadelphia Community Missionary Baptist Church at the time he passed to our Lord.

Mr. Lewis leaves to celebrate his homegoing: a widow, Elsie M. Lewis; children, Linda Mary Scott, Richard C. Lewis, Sr., Michael E. Lewis, Sr., Donna Maria Lewis, Governor E. Lewis, and Anthony B. Lewis, all of Portland, Oregon; a stepmother, Zephie Lewis of Pine Bluff, Arkansas; a stepsister, Florene Trotter of Warren, Arkansas; a stepbrother, Curley Lewis of Pine Bluff, Arkansas; a son-in-law, Kenneth C. Scott, Sr., of Portland, Oregon; seven grandchildren; and many, many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends of all ages. Pallbearers: Richard C. Lewis, Michael E. Lewis, Anthony B. Lewis, Sean Scott, Ferrell Mack, and Roy Pittman.

Black Minister Encourages Congregation To Invest

LOS ANGELES—Pointing to the economic strength of his congregation, the Rev. T. L. Willis enticed members of his Pilgrims' Hope Baptist Church to invest in their own Black business enterprises here again last month.

"By supporting our own," Rev. Willis said, "we create jobs for our young, develop business role models, and insure financial scholarship assistance for our needy students."

Rev. Willis spoke last month on behalf of his "Adopt-A-Business" Program, which offers financial and consumer support to five church-adopted businesses in the areas of food, clothing, shelter, travel and savings.

Last month saw emphasis by the church on Founders Savings and Loan Association—one of the adopted enterprises.

Pilgrims' turnout at Founders opened 26 new bank accounts ranging in value from $100 to $10,000.

Under this alliance, according to Henri O'Bryant, director of Pilgrims' Hope AAB Program, the five Black-owned businesses now are receiving financial and church pulpit support on a day-to-day basis.

O'Bryant said the AAB Program is operating so effectively now that five more enterprises will be "adopted" by the church this September.

Portland Festival Symphony At Laurelhurst Park

by Mattie Ann Callier-Spears

The Portland Festival Symphony was founded in 1981 by its Music Director and Conductor Lajos Balogh. It is a full professional orchestra, consisting of members of the Oregon Symphony, the Portland Opera Orchestra and Local 99.

The Portland Festival Symphony established the first regular outdoor symphony concerts in the metropolitan area. Concerts FREE TO THE PUBLIC—are offered at Portland Prks (except Washington Park). The concerts of the Festival Symphony have been very popular and successful.

Music Director Lajos Balogh is also Principal Second Violinist of the Oregon Symphony and conductor of the Metropolitan Youth Symphony and the Marylhurst Symphony.

Free concerts will be held:

August 14
5:00 p.m.
Laurelhurst Park

August 21
4:00 p.m.
Peninsula Park

The programs will include popular masterpieces of symphonic literature by Haydn, Sibelius and Rimsky Korsakoff. The Peninsula Park will feature the Mel Brown Jazz Quintet and Cora Smith Fashion Show in addition to the Festival Symphony.

For Your Information

Ms. Chalaunda Reshia Parker, age 17, has been chosen to participate in the Miss T.E.E.N. Pageant and is in need of sponsorship.

In 1980, Chalaunda placed second in the Rose Festival Ice Skating Championships, as well as represented District #2 as Rose Festival Princess. In 1982, she won the 1982 City-wide Spelling Bee Championship.

Time is near for her to secure a sponsor for the Miss T.E.E.N. Pageant. If you would like to help Chalaunda please call 249-0346.

UPDATE

Donations Received

In the August 3, 1988 issue of the Observer, Ms. Mattie Spears wrote a story about Portland's Stars and Stripes Drill Team and their need for funds to make a important trip to Canada. In response to the article and the request for help, the drill team received two important donations: $100 from Portland Trailblazer Jerome Kersey and $25 from Ms. Veronica Green.

Thanks, Jerome and Veronica. The Drill Team sends their appreciation!

A Grateful Heart

Give me a grateful heart, Lord. For each small favor granted. As years unfold, may I behold Life still through eyes enchanted. Let me find beauty in all things. Nor be too blind to see The goodness in my fellowman. That he would find in me.

Grant that my ears remain attuned To hear the smallest sigh. And may I lend a gentle touch To those less sure than I. Let me remember lessons learned. And profit from the past. And may I build a bridge of dreams. That shall forever last.

Let me rejoice in simple things I need no wealth to buy The scent of pine upon the wind. A burnished copper sky. Scarlet roses on the fence. Sunrise through the trees. Lord grant that I may not outgrow Affinity with these.

Give me a grateful heart, Lord. Let me be satisfied. When days are less than sunny And plans lie at low tide. For life's a sweet adventure. That leads to who knows where. And love was made for sharing. And hearts were made to care.
