

FASHION SAVVY

Duke and Raveen Announce Winners of $100,000 Photo Contests

John H. Johnson (center), publisher, chairman and CEO of Johnson Publishing Company congratulates the winners of the $50,000.00 Raveen Kit Photo Contest and $50,000.00 Duke Kit Photo Contest: (left to right) Perdita Meeks (2nd prize/Raveen), Zandra Petway (1st prize/Raveen), Suzann Allen-Murphy (grand prize/Raveen), Anthony L. Tyler (grand prize/Duke), Ron Barret Jr. (1st prize/Duke), Carlton Chatman (2nd prize/Duke).

W E L L S U I T E D

FAMOUS FACES OF BEAUTY

Left to Right: Vanity and Deborah Crable, Host, Ebony/JET Showcase.

FALL
WALHALL'S
IN STORE

Suits are hot this fall, adding sparkle and a vast array of flair. As style goes sophisticated, contemporary and highly provocative — creating a unique fashion perspective.

FASHION EDITORIAL

Seasonal Changes

B.J. Edwards,
Fashion Editor

Remember, when putting together your fall wardrobe this early, to concentrate on purchasing basic necessities. They will work well with any purchase you make later in the season.

Sweaters in wool—slick blends, and bold vibrant patterns—will be the rule this season.

To protect yourself from the inevitable chill of autumn nights, you must wear lighter weight fabrics, such as cotton, along with heavier fall items to give you a balance of comfort night or day.

Always be prepared for that unexpected drop in temperature with a lightweight jacket. This season jackets are cut roomie for added comfort and come in a variety of shape styles and lengths.

Fall's new wide-legged pants call for a topper that doesn't stop at their fullest spot. The coat that fits the bill is the long, fluid trench coat. Remember to check the long and short of it carefully to make sure shapes and shades are in sync, and to create a flattering silhouette.

As Mother Nature begins her seasonal changes, we are reminded that this hot weather won't last forever. Now is the time to select clothing that will see you through the end of summer and into fall.

August is the month that kicks off the fall shopping season. There will be larger variety of early season offerings. Deep, dark, natural colors are being matched with bold, bright ones. There are lots of new color combinations, but don't be put off by them.

Female Success Stories

Television commentator Barbara Walters embraces Mary G. Winston, president, Winston Janitorial Service, Inc., Indianapolis, Ind., at the second annual Women of Enterprise Awards luncheon recently. Walters and actress Cicely Tyson were featured speakers.

The awards program, sponsored by Avon Products, Inc. and the U.S. Small Business Administration, salutes a group of outstanding women business owners for achievement despite hardships.

The five award winners, selected in a national search, will become valuable role models for aspiring women entrepreneurs by speaking at a series of local self-employment seminars for women. The seminars are also sponsored by Avon and the Small Business Administration.

Winston founded her company 35 years ago. Today, her business has 270 employees and annual revenues of $3 million.

Avoir Fashions

LARGE SIZE FASHIONS
FOR ALL OCCASIONS

Monday - Friday
10:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.
Saturday
10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m.
Sunday
Noon - 5:00 p.m.

Portland • 935 S.W. Yamhill
(503) 227-1765
Salem • 685 Church N.E.
(503) 370-8165

UNIQUELY YOURS Boutique & Nail Salon

Pre-Fall Special!

Full Set
Nail Tips $20
(Short Set)

517 N.E. Killingsworth
281-5728

