Nordstrom's and Rose City Connection Makes "Magic"

Using models from Nordstrom's, as well as in-house, the talented production company brought out the very best in reflecting fall's changing attitudes.

A hint of nostalgia filled the stage at the Lloyd Center Red Lion last Wednesday as a captive audience witnessed the vintage influence on fashion for the forthcoming season.

Sporty menswear, mixed freely with bright, bold colors, and suits (with a distinct air of formality) served notice that the watch word was individuality.

"Riding High" was a Classic statement as riding pants, boots, and hats were paraded down the runway in grand fashion.

Hats off! To Designer Patrick Kelly for introducing a line of fall fashion that truly adds flair and a rush of intoxicating flash.

Plaudits to Nordstrom's and Rose City Connection for once again displaying professionalism and exceptional talent as it continues to provide magic in the Rose City.

Nordstrom's and Rose City Connection made its usual magic as it ushered in fall fashions with fast pace and high style, and boldly colored fashions. Featuring short skirts, trousers, and tailored jackets as popular combinations.

From the Desk of Lonnie

Ocean California "Heat Wave"
Formulated from the Reformation: Enzyme Condition
"For Professional Use Only"

This product is for those that:

- 1) Don't like chemicals in the hair.
- 2) Don't like the greasy feeling of the pressed hair and its short life span.

A plus for "Heat Wave," it also has "Humidity Resistors," with the "Heat Wave," each application softens the hair, to become organically straight.

Let's face it, the curl is on its way out for some. It has gotten as straight as it can get. "So Make Your Change" The trend is short hair for men. Straight silky hair for women, be it curly or not.
