Marshall Schirer will schedule her to preach or give a shorter report in the first church which asks. Contact: Marshall Schirer, Suite G, 0248 S.W. Bancroft St., Portland, OR 97201-4270.

Ron Johnson Ordination Anniversary Recognized

The 25th anniversary of the ordination of Dr. Roland L. Johnson, senior pastor of First Baptist Church, Portland, was observed during morning service, Aug. 28. Moderator, Rev. Richard Smith and Vice-Moderator, Mrs. Leah Hammerly, brought greetings and presented flowers on behalf of the congregation. ABCO Executive Minister, Glenn Camper, presented a Certificate of Recognition from the ABC Ministers Council.

Pastor Johnson was ordained in 1963 in Pennsylvania. His nearly 10 years of ministry at Portland First Baptist Church have seen development in church program and outreach, and building maintenance and improvement projects. He has also served as President of American Baptist Churches of Oregon, Regional Director of the Alive In Mission Campaign, and other leader contributions.

New Manager At ATA

American Baptist Homes of the West and the Board of Directors of Allen Temple Arms announced the appointment of Maude M. August as the permanent manager of the Oakland facility, effective June 1, 1988. She had been serving as acting manager since February.

For seven years Mrs. August was at Friendship Village retirement community in San Francisco as assistant and then as full time manager. That home is sponsored by Friendship Baptist Church. Her most recent service was a two-year period as manager of the Martin Luther King/Marcus Garvey Co-op apartments in San Francisco.

Mother of a teenage daughter, Mrs. August is active in her church and enjoys working on her summer home in Clear Lake Oaks.

John Jackson Serves In Rhode Island

Rev. John H. Jackson will serve as Interim Pastor of Ebenezer Baptist Church, Providence, Rhode Island, beginning the first of August.

College offers new programs

Four new teachers, new courses, and Monday morning classes will enhance the choices offered at North Portland Bible College this fall. Three of the new instructors are comparative newcomers to the city.

Sister Ida Simpson Daniels of Greater Mount Calvary COGIC will be guiding a strategic class in Teaching Techniques, for the greater effectiveness of teachers in all our Sunday Schools. Rev. Glandion Carney of Maranatha Church will teach a timely class in Urban Youth Ministry, for which he has written a text. Dr. James Martin of Mt. Olivet Baptist Church is instructor for the first in an essential series on Bible Doctrine. The fourth addition is Rev. John Kennington, longtime pastor of Immanuel Temple on Sandy Blvd., who will present a study on the book of Revelation which will expose the student to more than one interpretation of this challenging book. John Kennington is a Bible conference speaker and writer as well as pastor, who also happens to be the brother of Sis. Beth Nance.

We appreciate the expenditure of time and energy that is involved in adding a three-hour stint to an already busy schedule of all our teaching staff, most of whom are pastors in our community. We trust that they will be rewarded by earnest and faithful students who will challenge their teaching gifts. Each one brings a unique wealth of experience and inspiration.

Rev. Phillip Nelson of Allen Temple will lead the World Christian Outreach class again on Tuesdays, but his teaching assistant this time will be Rev. Nathan Barnett of Berean, with Sandra Cheeks also contributing to the team effort. Sis. Cheeks spent several weeks in the Philippines this summer and has much to share.

Chaplain James Coleman will teach the Old Testament Survey class this year, and Sis. Beth Nance returns to New Testament Survey. Dean Michael Lindsey's classes in the bible Foundations sequence have been expanded and re-titled so as to conform to programs in other Bible schools, and therefore easier to transfer. NPBC will announce information soon on the development of a program that will lead to an A.A. degree in Bible.

Students may consult the fall schedule for the exact titles and times of each of these courses.

Sharing

Some share their lives with all they meet
Along life's thoroughfare,
A smile ... a nod ... a silence sweet,
These are the joys they share.

Some close their eyes along the road
While others hold their ears,
And there are quick and thoughtless words
That transform smiles to tears.

Our hearts tick off the nights and days
Like clocks upon a shelf,
And lonely is the one who wastes
God's time upon him self.
