"America's Most Wanted" Comes To Portland To Assist Local Police In Locating Suspect Wanted For Murder

"America's Most Wanted," a Fox Broadcasting program seen on KPDX Sundays at 8:00 p.m., presents realistic re-enactments of crimes whose prime suspect(s) remain at-large. Law enforcement agencies across the country have applauded the efforts and assistance of the program. To date, "America's Most Wanted" has expedited the arrest of at least 42 individuals wanted in connection with crimes.

A film crew will be in Portland, Nov. 9, to shoot a segment of "America's Most Wanted" and help Portland police discover the whereabouts of Hien Tat Chu, a 38-year-old man, wanted in connection with the slaying of his girlfriend Bonnie Sue Rich.

On April 2, 1988 Rich died on the Life Flight enroute to a local hospital. Two eyewitnesses have told police that her boyfriend and father of her two young children was responsible for the death. Chu apparently shot the victim during an argument in the victims car, while holding their seven month old son in his arms and their two and a half year old daughter looked on from the backseat.

The episode will be taped in cooperation with the Portland Police Bureau and will air in December.
