U.T.S. BIBLE COLLEGE PORTLAND EXTENSION

The United Theological Seminary has resumed its classes for the spring semester at Mt. Gillard Missionary Baptist Church -- 2902 N.E. Rodney (503) 287-1281. Rev. Hampton Calloway, pastor.

The classes are in session on Thursdays and Fridays of each week from 6:00 p.m. to 10:30 p.m., in the evening.

The classes being offered this semester, are: Christian Counselling--Dealing with marriage (How to keep a marriage together); Theology--Dealing with the doctrines of God; Personal Evangelism--How to Win the Lost for Christ. If there are enough students enrolled, a class in Greek and Hebrew will be offered.

There are seven (7) instructors: Rev. Hampton Calloway, Mrs. Cherie Royce, Mrs. Lucy Thomas, Rev. Eugene Boyd, Rev. Arthur May, Dr. Joe S. Hardie (director) and Dr. Abraham.

We are considering beginning a 'daytime' class to fit the needs of senior citizens, pastors and lay persons who are unable to attend the evening classes.

U.T.S. Bible College Portland Extension has been in operation for three years. The college is happy to announce that in May of last year, there were three (3) students who earned their degrees from the seminary: Rev. Johnny Pack, IV and Rev. Arthur May received a degree in Bible and Theology; while Mrs. Dora Mcrae received a degree in Religious Education.

U.T.S. is an accredited school founded in 1949 in Monroe, Louisiana. Dr. Benjamin Martin serves as the president of this Seminary and Bible College.

The school is designed to help those who are not able to attend a seminary or Bible College because of financial reasons or a cumbersome work schedule.

This is the only school of its kind in our community where it is geared to meet the needs of those who are trying to further their knowledge in the scripture and to training themselves to be better equipped to work in their various churches.

You can earn the following degrees: Diploma of Theology (60 credit hours), Bachelor of Theology (90 credit hours), Bachelor of Religious Education (90 credit hours), Master of Religious Education (150 credit hours), Master of Religious Administration (150 credit hours), and, also, offered is a Doctorate of Divinity.

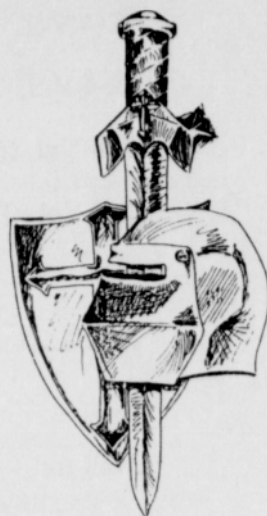

Applications are still being accepted for the spring semester. If you are interested and would like to enroll, please contact -- Dr. Joe S. Hardie, director of United Theological Seminary Bible College Portland Extension at (503) 287-7457.

DEATH NOTICE

Paul Ferdinand King

August 29, 1927 -
February 18, 1989

Mr. King was born in San Francisco, California, to Samuel and Lydia King; his parents. He married Doris Gene Poe of this city in October 1961. The couple lived her for 10 years until illness forced his return to California for continued medical treatment.

He had been a Merchant Marine and sailed for N.M.W. for more than 20 years until that illness forced his retirement.

Mr. King is survived by his widow Doris King, Portland, his sisters Mary Louise Himphill and Margie Johnson of Menlo Park, California and his sister Leona Regan, of San Francisco, California.

He leaves a host of nieces and nephews, friends and neighbors in California. He was remembered at First AME Zion Church of this city at his wife's request.

LET US LIFT OUR EYES TO HEAVEN

When we lift our eyes toward heaven
and we keep them
lifted there,
When we kneel with humbled heart
and turn our thoughts
to prayer,
Then we see that God,
who loves us
and keeps us in His care,
Will touch our lives and give us precious peace beyond compare.

PEOPLE ARE BEAUTIFUL

We find ourselves with space available in our People Are Beautiful After-School program. We meet Tuesday through Thursday from 3 - 5:30 pm at the Mallory Avenue Christian Church located on 126 NE Alberta. The cost is $15 for the year. We have crafts and occasional guests, and field trips that center around specific themes for each week. We also have gym time, a snack and of course there's time for the infamous homework. The last day of the program is tentatively May 25. In order for a child to participate, the parent/guardian must fill out a registration/release form. If a person is interested, they may contact Missie Kallunki, the Program Coordinator, at the Mallory Avenue Christian Church or call 288-5173.
