

CBC FOUNDATION EXPANDS MINORITY BANK DEPOSIT PROGRAM

(Washington, D.C. - March 21, 1989) - As part of its continuing effort to provide resources to the Black Community, the Congressional Black Caucus Foundation recently expanded its minority bank deposit program by 50 percent.

The CBC Foundation's national minority bank deposit program was established in 1987 with a $400,000 investment. That increased this year to $600,000. The program is done in conjunction with the National Bankers Association (NBA), the trade association for minority and women-owned banks.

"The Congressional Black Caucus Foundation's minority bank deposit program is aimed at enhancing the continued economic growth of the black community," says Congressman Julian Dixon (D-CA), president of the CBC Foundation.

The funds have been placed in six minority-owned commercial banks in nearly every region of the country in the districts of six members of the Congressional Black Caucus. The banks include: Douglass Bank, Kansas City, Kansas; Independence Bank of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois; Citizens Trust Bank, Atlanta, Georgia; Community Bank of Lawndale, Chicago, Illinois; Tri-State Bank of Memphis, Memphis, Tennessee, and Harbor Bank of Maryland, Baltimore, Maryland. The Minority-owned institutions were selected by the CBC Foundation's Investment Committee.

The Congressional Black Caucus Foundation is a nonpartisan, nonprofit, fundraising, educational and research organization established in 1976 by the Congressional Black Caucus to assist in the educational and political development of Black America.

OVERSTREET POWERHOUSE TEMPLE CELEBRATES DEDICATION

The Overstreet Powerhouse Temple celebrated its dedication services last week. There were churches & pastors from the community who stopped by to participate in the celebration.

The edifice is beautiful. Everyone should stop by just to say "Praise God from whom all blessings flow". God has truly blessed Rev. Mary Smith and her husband assistant pastor Rev. T. Smith.

Services were concluded on Sunday 4/2/89 at 3pm. The guest speaker was Supervisor L. M. Crear, supervisor of the Women's department jurisdiction of Idaho. Included in the celebration was the "speech choir" from Open Door House of Prayer who rendered 3 very moving presentations which included "Cocaine".
