Only the best truck schools are CERTIFIED!!! TRUCK DRIVING SCHOOL

There are over 300 truck training institutions in the U.S. Only 50 had enough courage to apply for certification under the new, tough guidelines of the Professional Truck Driver Institute of America* -- guidelines the trucking industry endorses for driving schools. Only 8 schools in the U.S. made the grade.

- Only 1 school passed in Oregon - CTSI
- Only 1 school passed in Washington - CTSI
- Only two passed in California. One was - CTSI.

"I strongly urge all truck driving schools to become certified so that entry level drivers will be assured of receiving the best quality training."

Thomas J. Donohue
President & Chief Executive Officer

Don't just compare tuitions. Compare the quality of our driver training programs and worldwide experience.

A Better Future. It's Just A Matter Of Time.

Maybe there was a time when people assumed the future would take care of itself. But now, we understand that it takes time. In Classrooms. Study halls. At home. If we communicate the excitement of education to our children, we gain a better chance for a better future.

That's why U S WEST is proud to sponsor education-related programs for those who are looking to the future. After all, if we keep the classrooms full today, chances are we'll keep small businesses, offices, and boardrooms full in years to come.

It's just a matter of time. And U S WEST believes commitment to education is time well spent.
