

News Around Town

CHILD I.D.

Oregon Commission On Black Affairs

CARD OFFERED

Snappy Photo at Eastport Plaza will conduct a Child Identification Program, July 1 and 8, 1989. The program is to provide children with a picture I.D. card, in order to assist authorities in locating lost children.

The child I.D. Card will be offered free to the public by Snappy Photo from 10:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. Saturday, July 1 and 8, 1989. Parents will receive a full color 3 1/2"x5" photo of their child, with a vital statistics form and thumb print on the back. The child I.D. cards may be picked up the following Wednesday at Snappy Photo.

Steve Boos, owner of Snappy Photo stated "We hope that our Child I.D. Program will help in fighting the ever-increasing problem of missing children."

Little Ricky Rocko, from Z100 Radio, will make a special appearance on Saturday, July 1, 1989 at 1:00 p.m.

The event will take place inside the west entrance of Eastport Plaza Shopping Center, located at 4000 S.E. 82nd Avenue, between Powell and Holgate.

Oregonians will have an excellent chance soon to express something about our State. Rather than telling the rest of the world that our state flower is the Oregon Grape or that our state shoelace is exactly sixty-two and one-quarter inches long, we have an opportunity to let everyone know who we are--what principles we embrace, what qualities we value, what truths we uphold.

We can achieve just that through Senate passage of House Bill 2705, which would establish a legal school holiday the third Monday of January each year in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. The State House of Representatives passed House Bill 2705 on June 13, establishing the holiday and putting us just one step away from achieving what has been for some a dream deferred. Senate passage and subsequent signature into law by Governor Goldschmidt will bring this dream to fruition and say something about Oregon that will rise above the cacophony which accompanied the close of the legislative session.

It will say that we, as Oregonians, stand together against racism. That we believe in equality. That we believe in the qualities that Dr. King embodied, and we want our young people to emulate the kind of man that Dr. King was--to live the kind of life that he lived. That Oregonians believe in the non-violent fight for what is right, even as an oppressed minority against overwhelming odds, even when it means denying oneself the comforts of the status quo, even when it is hard and we are tired, even when we must sacrifice everything, even unto death. Passage of this bill will tell our children that it is right to fight for a better humanity.

In a time when the South was rife with racism and hatred, Dr. King lived a story of peace. He did not strike back against those who tried to beat him down. He did not hate Southern whites in return of their hatred for him. He did not bomb a white church or murder white children in response to the bombing and murder of children in a black church. Instead, he refused to participate in the violence which was inherent in the system. When Rosa Parks could not ride in the front of a bus, rather than becoming violent, Dr. King organized a boycott of that bus line. He lived as a victim of the violence, the hatred, and the humiliation of discrimination and yet he responded with non-violence and love.

In a time when Oregon is experiencing a resurgence of racism, when a citizen is murdered simply because he is black, when other citizens are attacked simply for being members of an ethnic minority, it is time for us to apply the lessons of Dr. King. We cannot violate his dream by attacking racist organizations and forming hate groups of our own. We must continue to live his dream, and to affirm it with non-violent protest and caring. The fate of House Bill 2705 will say something important about Oregonians, one way or the other. I urge all concerned to write or call your Senator immediately and express your support of this bill.

Flagging Wanted Work Shop

Sponsored By Oregon Business League & Oregon/Washington Minority Construction Assoc.
Flag Workshop Certification
Sat: July 24, 1989
9:00 - 12:00
10 N.E. Graham
Williams & Graham
Portland, Or
Fee $25.00

Volunteers needed

Nutrition - Blood Pressure Study

Researchers at OHSU are looking for volunteers for free, experimental studies of nutrition and blood pressure. If you are between 20 and 80, in general good health, and able to attend weekly appointments, you may be a candidate for these studies. Volunteers with normal or high blood pressure will be included. Candidates will be thoroughly screened by the research team and will receive a free physical examination and lab tests. Convenient appointments can be arranged. For information please call 279-8490, Division of Nephrology.

OREGON HEALTH SCIENCES UNIVERSITY

PCC SETS SUMMER CLASSES IN NORTH PORTLAND

"Finding Joy in Your Life" and "Spanish for Kids Aged 4 to 8" are among the summer classes Portland Community College has scheduled at North Portland locations.

How to form, evaluate and achieve goals in life will be the focus of "Finding Joy in Your Life," which will meet from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, July 8, in Portable Building 4 on the PCC Cascade Campus, 705 N. Killingsworth St. Cost is $8.50.

"Spanish for Kids Aged 4 to 8" will meet from 9:30 to 10:30 a.m. on Mondays for six weeks, starting July 10, at the Peninsula Park Center, 6400 N. Albina Ave.

PCC HONORED by PORTLAND PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Portland Community College has received recognition from the Portland Public Schools for "outstanding contributions to the education of children."

The college was among 10 businesses and organizations receiving plaques during a June 5 meeting of the Portland school board.

PCC was cited for recognition scholarships the college presents every spring to outstanding graduating seniors of public high schools within the five-count PCC district, including Portland. Scholarship winners receive free tuition at PCC for three college terms.

PCC's leadership role in the Portland Area Vocational/Technical Educational Consortium, also prompted the college's selection.

EBONY ROSE SKI CLUB
TENNIS CAMP AT IRVING PARK,
TUESDAYS & WEDNESDAYS
JUNE 20, 21, 27, 28
JULY 4, 5, 11, 12, 17, 18
TIME: 12:00 TO 3:00PM
AGES: 8-14 COST: NO CHARGE
SIGN-UP WITH P.E. TEACHER OR MAIL YOUR NAME, ADDRESS, PHONE NO.
TO: ERSC, P.O. BOX 6568
PORTLAND, OR 97228

See the Difference

Safeway is in your Neighborhood to Stay

Ad Effective 6/21 Thru 6/27/89

SAFeway

MAKE IT REAL
REAL
THIS SUMMER!
JUNE IS DAIRY MONTH.

Tender Plump Fryer Hindquarters

Approximate 5-Pound Bag. Tender, juicy and a favorite for outdoor barbecues. Packed with lots of nutrition and loved by adults and kids. Perfect to oven bake or broil. (Approx. 3-Lb. Pak, Lb. 59¢ Smaller Pak, Lb. 69¢)

49¢
Lb.

Fresh Lucerne 1%, 2% or Non-Fat Gallon Milk

Locally produced and bottled on the banks of the Clackamas River. The name Lucerne, for 60 years, has stood for freshness and premium quality. Celebrate June Dairy Month with a gallon of 1% or 2% Low Fat or Non-Fat milk and taste the freshness in every sip!

$1.29
Ea.

June is Dairy Month

MILK IS A 'NATURAL' FOR SUMMER!

Youth C.E.O. For A Day

Karen Hatchett, a graduate of the Financial Services Academy at Jefferson High School served as Chief Executive Officer for a day at Lattice Works of Oregon as part of the annual CEO for a day event sponsored by the Portland Investment Program, Thursday, June 1 1989.

Hatchett oversaw the operations of L.W.O.'s (a specialty wood products manufacturer) 150 employees and was given a guided tour by the company's President and General Manager Glen Mick. Ms Hatchett was also introduced to the operations of customer service, sales accounting and maintenance.

Les Femmes

Request the honor of Your Presence at the THIRTY-EIGHTH

Debutante and Cavalier Ball

SUNDAY, JUNE 25, 1989
7:00 P.M. to 12: Midnight

RED LION MOTOR INN
900 N. Hayden Island Drive
Jantzen Beach
Formal Attire
Presentation 8:00 P.M.