News Around Town

BURGER KING INITIATES CHILDCARE/ ELDER CARE SUBSIDY PROGRAM THROUGHOUT PORTLAND METRO AREA

All Burger King Restaurants in the Portland metropolitan area have initiated a childcare and elder care subsidy program, it was announced and high school aged youth. today by Candace Gonzales, director of marketing.

The subsidy programs are available to all hourly team members in the 27 Burger King Restaurants in the Portland metropolitan area, all of which are owned and operated by 2342. Restaurant management Northwest. The subsidy program will expand to include 29 restaurants in August, 1989, with the addition of new restaurants in Beaverton and Gresham. The childcare program is available to hourly team members who are the parent or legal guardian of a child less than 10 years of age. Eligible employees are able to enroll their child in the daycare of their choice.

The elder care program is available to hourly team members who are the sole provider of support for a parent that requires care. The subsidy can be used to defray any costs incurred by these employers in caring for a parent as required. This innovative program is believed to be the first of its kind in the state. It is anticipated that this type of program will become more common as employers face the demands of an aging population. The subsidy may equal up to $50 per week, per employee.

Restaurant Management Northwest is believed to be the only company in the Portland metropolitan area to offer childcare and elder care subsidies to its employees. Restaurant Management Northwest, with approximately 1500 employees, is ranked 50th in the State of Oregon based on this

BURGER KING ANNOUNCES EDUCATION LOAN ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

All hourly team member employees of Burger King Restaurants in the Portland metropolitan area are now eligible for low interest education loans, it was announced today by Candace Gonzales, director of mar-

The 27 Burger King restaurants in the Portland metropolitan area are owned and operated by Restaurant Management Northwest. Restaurant Management Northwest will extend the education loan program to include the two new Burger King restaurants in Beaverton and Gresham, due to open in August of this year.

Burger King are entitled to borrow up to $25,000 per year. The maximum cumulative loan is $100,000. The funds may be used for the educational expenses of employees or their family members including tuition, room and board, fees, books, equipment, computers and other related expenses. The student may attend any accredited institution of learning including undergraduate, graduate or professional schools. Private elementary and secondary schools are also permissible.

To be eligible, hourly team members must be: a U.S. citizen or permanent resident; over 18 years of age at the time of application; and creditworthy or have a cosigner. There is no family income test and being disqualified from a federal loan program is of no consequence. The college loan program is a significant benefit to Burger King employees who wish to further their education and career opportunities.

GRESHAM CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL

The City of Gresham is once again rolling out the carpet in preparation for the 7th annual Gresham Children's Festival! This year's event will take place on saturday, September 23 at Dexter McCarty Middle School in Gresham.

The festival welcomes either booths or displays which either encourage children's participation through handson activities, or which represent Gresham's heritage and culture. A special promotional effort is being made this year to attract middle school

Civic clubs or service organizations who are interested in participating in this year's festivities are invited to call the city's festival cochairpersons: Sherry Connolly at 669-2546 or Kimberley Coxen at 669-

LSAT REVIEW COURSE

Taking the September 23,1989 Law School Admissions Test (LSAT)? Portland State University's Division of Continuing Education is offering a LSAT Review Course this fall that is designed to maximize your performance on the LSAT. Revised to reflect the new LSAT content and format and taught by an experienced instructor, the course focuses on strengthening basic academic skills tested by the LSAT and helping students develop effective LSAT test taking strategies.

The Fall LSAT Review Course meets Saturdays 9AM-5PM, August 19,26, and September 9 and 16 in Cramer Hall 103 on the Portland State University campus, 1721 S.W. Broadway. Tuition is $225.00.

To register, send a check payable to Portland State University, P.O. Box 1393, Portland Oregon 97207 or phone 464-4832 with your Visa or Mastercard Number. For additional information, contact David Allen at 464-4812.

FINANCIAL ABUSE AND CRIMINAL VICTIMIZATION OF THE ELDERLY

One of the concerns of the Governor's Commission on Senior Services is the financial abuse and criminal victimization of the elderly. Virtually every day some older Oregonian is the victim of some form of scam, fraud, or scheme. These come in many forms and may be by some unscrupulous salesperson, misleading or false advertising, unreasonable contract terms or dozens of other methods to victimize the elderly.

It is the responsibility of every individual to become educated so as to become a wise and careful consumer.Organizations that are established to deal with the concerns of Eligible hourly team members of older persons can provide programs and assist in the enlightenment and increase the awareness of the consumer pitfalls to avoid. An example of such programs available to the citizens of Oregon is one provided by the office of the Oregon Attorney General. Jan Morgosian of that Office (378-4732) conducts an excellent overview of many of the ways that the older persons are being "ripped off" and suggestions of how to avoid being a victim.

Another example is a slide-tape presentation which is available from AARP and is titled "Caveat Vendor." This provides a good lesson for consumers. Many other programs are available and the Commission encourages every organization and group on the State with concerns for seniors to participate in the fight against this form of abuse of the older Orego-

BAN

"THE BITE, A TASTE OF PORTLAND" IS SET FOR AUGUST 11-13 AT TOM McCALL WATERFRONT PARK

The recipe calls for: tasty specialties from 30 restaurants, tasty licks from 60 of the area's top bands; a lacing of fine Oregon wines and a liberal measure of hard work and dedication by some 500 volunteers from the Oregon Special Olympics organization. The result is "The Bite", Portland's premiere food and wine tasting festival and musical entertainment showcase. It's set for August 11, 12, & 13 at Tom McCall Waterfront Park and admission is free.

Thirty restaurants will dish up their signature cuisine and the Oregon Wine pavilion will offer award-winning wines from 20 Oregon Wineries. Throughout the weekend, over 60 bands perform on two separate stages delivering a musical smorgasbord to please every taste: big band, acoustic, folk, jazz, country, rock and show bands. The new "Small Fry Theater" sponsored by Oscar Maeyer will present performances of family entertainment. There also will be an exhibit on the Oregon Convention Center's potential economic impact on restaurant and night club business presented "At the Bite, everyone wins" says Ken Dale, executive director of Oregon Special Olympics, "you taste great food and wine, enjoy great entertainment and it all benefits a terrific cause. The bite makers it possible for us to stage year around athletic training and competition in 16 different sports for the mentally impaired children and adults in our community", continued Dale. More than 185,000 people turned out for "The Bite" last year and Oregon Special Olympics realized a net profit of $80,000+.

This year's goal is even higher.

"The Bite's" 1989 major sponsors are: Oregon Lottery, Portland Distributing Company, Seagram's Coolers, Pepsi Cola, The Oregonian, KOIN TV6, and 1190 KEX and Z100 radio.

CONTACT: Terry Amato or Cheryl Tonkin (503) 228-1151

PASCHALL IS NEW UO AFFIRMATIVE ACTION DIRECTOR

Diane Wong Paschall of Cambridge, Mass., is the University of Oregon's new director of affirmative action.

Pascahll, an attorney and member of the Massachusetts Bar Association, will assume the full-time post in mid-August. She currently is special assistant to the president for human resources and affirmative action at Roxbury (Mass.) Community College, where more than 90 percent of the students are minority group members, and many are recent immigrants.

"I am delighted that the university has been able to attract a person of Ms. Paschall's caliber to head our affirmative action office," said UO President Myles Brand.

"She is bright, articulate and has the kind of background and experience this university needs to continue its work in recruiting a more diverse faculty, staff and student body," he observed. "She will help us to make sure the university is a place where individual differences are respected and where our employees and students all are given an equal and full opportunity to excel in their work and study."

Paschall, 43, was selected after a five-month national search that attracted 75 applicants. Alison Baker, executive assistant to the president, chaired the 10-member search committee.

Brand reviewed the credentials of four finalists recommended to him by the search committee before he became the university's 14th chief executive on July 1. He had recommended Paschall's appointment to Paul Olum, now UO president emeritus, before Olum left office.

Paschall replaces Bean Comrada, who took a position with the UO Foundation as director of special projects. Anita Johnson was acting affirmative action director during the 1988-89 academic year.

As director, Paschall will report to and advise the president and the university's senior administrative staff on affirmative action and equal opportunity issues. She will help develop and coordinate the university's affirmative action plans, and she will head a staff responsible for implementing and monitoring those programs.

Before beginning her Roxbury Community college assignment, Paschall worked from April 1986 to July 1988 as an attorney in the Enforcement Division of the Massachusetts State Ethics Commission in Boston. While there, she also monitored employee screening and hiring efforts as the agency's affirmative action manager.

During 1987, she was a member of the Cambridge Human Rights Commission. For 18 months beginning in March 1984, she worked at the Massachusetts Advocacy Center in Boston as a policy analyst specializing in children's rights issues and as an advocate representing children and parents in school related cases.

Paschall is a 1983 graduate of the Harvard Law School. She was an honors graduate of Cleveland (Ohio) State University in 1980, earning a bachelor's degree magna cum laude in Spanish and history.

Shrine Football Squads Open Camp, Game set for Saturday, July 29

North and South squads for the North-South Shriners Hospital All-Star Football Game opened camp this week and except for a few minor ailments the two teams of AAA high school graduated seniors appeared ready for battle.

The 42nd annual edition of the benefit game kicks off at 7p.m. Saturday, July 29, at Portland Civic Stadium. South goes into the series with two consecutive wins and an overall edge of 21 to 17, with three ties.

South Head Coach Thurman Bell of Roseburg took his squad to the practice field at Concordia College in Northeast Portland. Of 40 original selections, he sustained only one dropout, Sean Carter of North Eugene.

North Head Coach Bill Dressel of Benson in Portland quartered his team at Lewis & Clark College in Southwest Portland, a change from recent years. His squad has lost two. Dan Kilgras of Forest Grove had not recovered sufficiently form an injury and Chris Kaleikilo of Hillsboro opted for a summer of baseball.

A shift in the South coaching ranks brought in Jim Hellyer of North Salem in the Assistant ranks, which also includes Jim Nagel of Ashland and Larry Walker of South Medford

LOCAL WOMAN ATTENDS RENDEZVOUS STAR WATERS of NORTH PORTLAND

Is "Stepping into the '90s" as an 'UndercoverWear Woman.''

UndercoverWear, Inc. recently held its 12th annual "Rendezvous" sales convention in historic Boston. All UndercoverWear guests stayed at the Sheraton Boston Hotel and Highlighted in the four-day extravaganza were fashion shows, a wild, wild west party featuring international foods, introductions to new sales and marketing techniques and, for the finale, a gala dinner dance which was held in the Sheraton Hotel Grand Ballroom.

UndercoverWear, Inc. introduced lingerie fashions from four international designers--Monique of Paris, Bobby Zee of Los Angeles, Mario Vallieri of Florence and Gordon Sterling of London. Each piece of exclusive designer lingerie will be featured in the 1989 Undercover-Wear catalog that will be circulated to thousands of women around world.

UndercoverWear, Inc.,located in Wilmington, Massachusetts, was founded in 1977 by the husband and wife team of Walter and Tiffany James. The company boasts 60,000 sales Agents from the United States, Canada and the United Kingdom and caters to women of all sizes, ranging from petite to tall and queen and majesty.

PORTLAND STATE UNIVERSITY RETURNING STUDENT WORKSHOP

People who either want to return to college or else begin college life after a long absence from the classroom are invited to attend a special free program Saturday, Aug. 12th at Portland State University.

PSU's "Returning Students' Orientation" is scheduled to begin at 9:00 a.m. in Room 338 of Smith Memorial Center (located on s.w. Broadway between Montgomery and Harrison Streets.)

Returning students should also review enrollment restrictions as noted in the new PSU Fall Schedule of

1

The brief Saturday program promises to be as informative as it is informal. Participants will be able to ask questions of individual concern, and can also join in discussing topics of interest to the group.

Free parking and free child care are available during the orientation. Parking in unreserved stalls may be found in any of three university multilevel structures (two of which are located on s.w. Broadway0, and children may be brought to the orientation meeting room. No advance child care arrangements are necessary.

Teens Lose Driving Privileges

More than 700 Oregon teenagers were denied their driving privileges in the first six months of 1989, according to the Motor Vehicles Division. This figure represents a four percent decrease when compared to the first six months of 1988.

Under the law, first offenders are denied driving privileges for one year or until the person becomes 17, whichever is longer. Repeat offenders are suspended or denied for another year or until the person becomes 18, again, whichever is longer.

The 715 denials were based on court convictions or determinations involving alcohol or drug possession, use or abuse. Courts then order DMV to suspend licenses or deny the privilege to apply for a license or permit. Driving privileges may be. denied even when the offenses are not related to driving a motor ve-

There were 592 denials for possession of alcohol or drugs. This accounted for 83 percent of the total. There were 11 denials for having an open container of alcohol or drinking in a motor vehicle, 95 for intoxication, one for driving under the influence of intoxication, one for driving influence the intoxicants(DUII) and 16 for miscellaneous alcohol and drug offenses such as theft, delivery or manufacturing of a controlled substance.

Males accounted for 565 of the denials, or 80 percent.

DMV statistics show that there were 94 second denials, 16 third denials, two fourth denials, one fifth denial, and one sixth denial.

GOLDEN'S HOUSE OF

125 NE Killingsworth

STYLE

Look your Best Come to Golden's

We provide complete hair care and design Home of Wet Wave

Hair Designers Delores Alexander & Jerry Duckett

LOCAL DESIGNER SPOTLIGHTED

Please join us Sunday, July 30th at 517 N.E. Killingsworth at 6p.m.. Elizabeth Hart will be previewing the new queen size line 'IN XS' of a talented African American designer. She will also be showing the newest additions to her collection.

"LEIKO"

The Northwest woman has to be especially careful with the fabric she chooses to wear. LIEKO's cotton is a big winner. The fabric is soft, washable, comfortable and kind to the body. It adapts equally well to the warmth and the coolness of our climate

Not only is the fabric wonderful, but LIEKO'S designs are great. This line is designed for comfort, beauty, and the Northwest woman. Color is another attraction. LIEKO's clothes come in so many beautiful colors. And for all those purple people, there is the most beautiful purple we have seen in years. Another plus in LIEKO's clothes is that they are so accessorisable Belt, scarfs, pins, necklaces - all can be used to dress up these wonderful

LIEKO's clothes are comfortable, the styles and colors are beautiful, and best of all they are moderately priced. Please join to celebrate the LEIKO line. We hope to see you

Donnie Lewis, by July 29th