One Reason Crime Is Spreading Could Be The Wrong People Are Behind Bars.

Locking yourself away from crime won't make the problem disappear. In fact, by confining yourself you only encourage the threat to take more of our streets and neighborhoods. What's missing is a plan of action between you and your neighbors. And on the evening of Tuesday, August 8, we'll provide the perfect opportunity to meet those perfect strangers down the street.

It's National Night Out, sponsored locally by the Crime Prevention Association of Oregon. From 7:00 to 10:00 pm, gather together for a party, picnic, rally, or parade, and use the event to organize permanent crime prevention programs.

If you're interested, plan now. You can begin by taking that first NIGHT OUT step out the door. For ideas and assistance, call the National Night Out Hotline at 1-800-852-SAFE.

The 27th Annual Full Gospel Fellowship of Churches and Ministers International Convention was held at the Green wood Inn, in Beaverton, on July 10-13, 1989.

The convention featured Rev. James Helton, the President and the pastor of the Full Gospel Temple, Muncie, Indiana; from Humble beginnings in a log cabin, Rev. E. V. Hill, pastor of the largest black church in America -- Mt. Zion Missionary Baptist Church, Los Angeles, California, and serves on the boards of major Christian organizations; Rev. Lowell Lundstrom has a God-given talent for communicating the Gospel and the Lundstroms' lively, wholesome presentation appeals to every member of the family. He is President of Trinity Bible College; Rev. Gary McSpadden who proved that a broad expression of musical gifts can have an important part in shaping an industry and influencing thousands of people; the Jubilee Singers of the Mt. Olivet Baptist Church in Portland, Oregon under the auspicious tutelage of Mr. Claude Bowles, Rev. Dr. James Martin, senior pastor.

Members and friends traveled near and far to be a part of the four days of dynamic and personal Spiritual uplifting.

The theme of the Convention was "I WILL POUR OUT MY SPIRIT". This is the heart cry of the Executive Board, not only for this conclave, but for our entire Fellowship around the world," states President Helton.

Next year's convention is scheduled to be held in Orlando, Florida. It will be held at the Altamonte Springs Hilton & Towers. The dates are July 9-12, 1990.

Cost of the rooms will be $48. It appears, as of now, it will be the largest attended Convention in the history of our Fellowship. Buses are being chartered from all over the USA. Make your plans now. Rooms will be limited, since July is a high tourist time in Orlando.

WHAT A SMILE CAN DO

A smile lends beauty to the face,
A sparkle to the eye,
That age and time cannot erase
As the years slip by.
Smiles of friendliness and love
Are always a delight,
And have the capability
Of making spirits light.
A smile can chase the blues away,
And also dry a tear
When soothing words are hard to say
To someone we hold dear.
God wants us to be happy,
And when we wear a smile,
It makes life far more pleasant,
And also more worthwhile.

LEGISLATIVE ACTIVITY ON HEALTH POLICY ISSUES

Health policy and cost containment were significant issues in the Oregon legislative session which ended July 4. The legislature considered many proposals. The more significant bills, and their status upon adjournment, are listed below.

Bill Summary
SB 27-F Sen. Kitzhaber's proposal for expanded Medicaid coverage of the uninsured. Passed. It now goes to the Governor for signature.

SB 252-A As amended, entitles Medicaid patients to have prescriptions filled at pharmacy of the patient's choice. Passed Senate. Still in committee upon adjournment.

SB 523-C Creates procedures for establishing power of attorney for health care decisions. Passed. Now goes to the Governor for signature.

SB 534-B As amended, appropriates $1 million to fund the Oregon Medical Insurance Pool (high risk pool), and provides for assessment of insurers. Passed. It now goes to the Governor for signature.

SB 536-B Requires SSD to establish pre-admission screening procedures for all persons being admitted to long term care facilities. Screening services would be made available for persons entering alternative levels of long-term care, for a fee. Passed. Now goes to Governor for signature.

SB 935-C Revises eligibility and coverage of health insurance pool for small employers. Requires all businesses to buy insurance after 1994. Ties benefits under pool to benefits under SB 27. Governor signed.

SB 1047-As amended, requires HMOs and PPOs to cover services provided by osteopathic hospitals. (There is only one osteopathic hospital in the state, Eastmoreland General in Portland.) Passed Senate. Still in House committee on adjournment.

SB 1123 Requires physicians to accept Medicare assignment. Still in committee upon adjournment.

SB 1124-B As amended, requires Joint Legislative Committee on Health Care to study the need for additional mandated health insurance benefits, and report to the 1991 legislative session. Passed. It now goes to the Governor for signature.

SJM 20 Memorializes Congress to enact a comprehensive National Health Plan. Passed. (Does not require Governor's signature.)

HB 2142-As amended, requires all employers to give quarterly data to the Employment Division on health insurance coverage of employees; and provides that AFS and the Office of Health Policy can have access to these data upon request. Passed. Governor signed.

HB 2590 provides for state funding of soft organ transplants. Still in committee upon adjournment.

Seattle Anti-Klan Protesters Keep the Populist Party Off King County Ballot

Chanting "No hate, no fear, we don't want the Klan here," spirited Seattle protesters effectively blocked the Populist Party's attempt to qualify for ballot status in King County on July 22. The party, which ran former Grand Dragon of the Ku Klux Klan David Duke for president in 1988, met in several cities throughout Washington State in an effort to gather enough signatures to run candidates for office. Eighty signatures were needed to make the King County ballot.

However, at the Delridge Community Center in West Seattle, only a dozen white registrants dared to cross the six and a half hour picket line, organized by United Front Against Fascism (UFAF), and face the angry but disciplined heckling of 125 demonstrators.

At a noon-time rally, protesters cheered Nate Ford, President of the Metal Trades Council and West Seattle resident, when he told them: "I live in this multi-ethnic community and this is my message to the Populist Party: "Love it or leave it!"

Guerry Hodderson, an organizer of the UFAF demonstration opposing Nazi Skinheads on Whidbey Island last December, echoed Ford's militancy: "This rally proves again we can fight back against hate-mongers by outmobiling them and facing them down. We are the majority and we are telling all racist, sexist, homophobic, union-busting types: You are not welcome in Seattle!"

Endorsing groups included the Gray Panthers, Women in the Trades, International Socialist Organization, Center for Democratic Renewal, and Inlandboatmen's Union of the Pacific and Washington Rainbow Coalition.

Neighbors and passers-by from the multi-ethnic community surrounding Delridge Center joined the demo or answered a hastily lettered "Honk if you hate the KKK" sign with friendly blasts on the car horns.
