

SOUL SENSATION SET

PIONEER COURTHOUSE SQUARE is proud to host the party of the summer, "SHAKE, RATTLE & SOUL." On Friday, August 18, 1989, at 7:30 p.m. HENRY WEINHARD'S PRIVATE RESERVE presents one of the hottest line ups ever to grace a Portland stage: the fabulous THE TEMPTATIONS, the legendary soulstress, ETTA JAMES and Portland's own favorite R&B group, BODY & SOUL.

The Temptations, who defined the Motown sound of the sixties, have fourteen number one R&B hits to their credit, including "My Girl," "Just My Imagination," and "Papa Was a Rolling Stone." Rolling Stone Illustrated History of Rock & Roll put it best... "The Temptations quite simply stood as the finest vocal group in Sixties soul; they could out-dress, out-dance and out-sing any competition in sight." It holds true today! Their music has progressed and along with their old standards are new hits. Just this year the Tempts were inducted into The Rock N'Roll Hall of Fame.

Etta James: her fans are devoted and her appeal is timeless. She is a soul mama who belts out a song like no one else can. The rolling Stones chose her to open for them on both their 1978 and 1981 tours. Her music can be heard on the sound track of "Back to the Future," "Taps," "Rooftops," "Rain Man," and she performed in "Hail, Hail, Rock n' Roll." Her newest album "Seven Year Itch," was nominated for the best contemporary blues recording artist Grammy Award in 1988. The reviews state it all, "Don't even try to resist. Etta James has got one of those big, powerful, force-of-nature voices that is going to track you down and lay you flat out."...People Magazine, Dec. 1988. The New Yorker's Mark Moses on Etta, "she possesses one of the two or three most powerful and fearless voices in all of R&B." And from the San Francisco Chronicle, May 1989 "...she's a national treasure."

Opening the show, Portland's own Body & Soul needs no introduction to this area. The band's fame is skyrocketing with recent appearances on the "Today Show," and the "Pat Sajak Show." A major record deal appears to be close at hand.

SHAKE, RATTLE & SOUL, the Square's annual fundraiser, is going to be a night of music that Portlanders will long remember. General admission tickets priced at $18.00 (plus service charge) are on sale at G.I. Joe TICKETMASTER Locations and Powell's Travelstore at the Square. Tickets to the MEIER & FRANK Patrons' Pavilion are $75.00 and available through the Square office. This year's event is sponsored by HENRY WEINHARD'S PRIVATE RESERVE, MEIER & FRANK, THE OREGONIAN, WILLAMETTE WEEK and KISN 97 FM.

DOMESTIC AND SEXUAL VIOLENCE

The Oregon Coalition Against Domestic and Sexual Violence is pleased to announce its 11th Annual Conference for Women and Children. The Conference is to be held at the University of Portland, 5000 N. Willamette Blvd., Portland, Oregon, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, August 11, 12, and 13. This year the conference theme is "Healing Ourselves: Changing the World" and features 25 workshops and five keynote speakers including Nancy Wilgenbusch, President of Marylhurst College; Freddy Webb-Pettet, Director of Oregon Adult and Family Services; Tina Frost, Former Executive Director of the Oregon Coalition against Domestic and Sexual Violence; and Margaret Brown and Julie Johnson, activists in the fight against violence against women and children. A Woman of Color Institute on Friday, August 11 is being held in conjunction with the conference. Registration fee for the full conference is $60 (includes meals) and child care is available.

YOUTH GANG HOTLINE

One of the major and most difficult crime issues in the Portland area is the increasing presence of gangs. There are several types of gangs active in the Portland area.

One of the fundamental keys to rumor control regarding gangs is the function of the YOUTH GANG HOTLINE. The HOTLINE has been established for gathering gang related information.

The HOTLINE number is 248-GANG (248-4254) and can be called 24 hours, daily.

HOTLINE INFORMATION FACT SHEET

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THE HOTLINE?

1. To provide a clearinghouse for information on gangs, gang related activities and graffiti.

2. To provide rumor control on gang activity.

3. To provide information and referral services for youth, parents, community residents and others concerned about gangs.

4. To report specific information on gangs and possible gang activities, gang locations and graffiti.

This information will be reported to appropriate agencies:

Neighborhood offices, schools, parks, youth serving agencies, etc.

WHO CAN CALL THE HOTLINE?

Anyone who has information on gangs or needs help with gang related problems.

This would include:

Youth who need help or have concerns about gangs in the neighborhood, in school, parks and other community gatherings.

Parents who need information and/or wish to report suspected gang activity.

Anyone who works with youth, i.e., teachers, park workers, church groups and other concerned people.

Neighborhood residents and businesses concerned about gang activity.

CAN THE CALLER REMAIN ANONYMOUS?

YES!! THE CALLER CAN REMAIN ANONYMOUS.

The North/Northeast Youth Gangs Task Force recognizes that, there are times when callers may be frightened and may fear being identified.

Information will be considered as CONFIDENTIAL. Callers may however be asked to consider giving a name or contact so that follow-up assistance or clarification of information can be provided.

WHAT KINDS OF INFORMATION SHOULD BE REPORTED TO THE GANGS HOTLINE?

1. Possible gang relationships to known drug houses or street dealing situations.

2. Build up of youths wearing colors or similar apparel at parks, schools, on buses and especially when fighting, menacing behavior occurs or when drug dealing is apparent.

3. Graffiti appearing on houses, businesses, in parks and bus shelters.

4. Threats to youth, youth being approached by other youths alleging to be gang members.

5. Any information relating to recruitment efforts by alleged gang members.

6. Descriptions of suspected gang members, gang imitators and vehicles possibly involved in gang activity.
