Peter Lake To Speak

The Metropolitan Human Relations Commission would like to take this opportunity to invite you to attend a program which features Peter Lake. The program will be held on January 12 at 2:30 p.m. in the Coos Bay Room at the Red Lion Downtown, 310 S.W. Lincoln.

It is clear that the incidents of hate crimes and supremacists activity continue to grow in Northwest. In response to this increase the Commission has focused much of its work on hate crime and hate groups. Education about hate groups can help us learn to understand and deal with these groups more effectively.

Peter Lake is known for going undercover to infiltrate, investigate, and document "The Order" a supremacists hate group. He will be presenting a two hour program on his work with "The Order." Due to limited seating we ask that you call the MHRC office at 796-5136 and reserve your seat by January 10. If you are hearing impaired and need an interpreter, please let us know by January 8th.

The Metropolitan Human Relations Commission believes in the dignity and worth of all human beings. MHRC's mission is to foster mutual understanding and respect, and to protect the human rights of all economic, religious, ethnic, racial, national origin, disability, age, sex and sexual orientation groups in Multnomah County.

Packwood Sets Trip To Focus On Rural Health Care

Senator Bob Packwood will return home to Oregon in January for a ten-day trip to 13 counties. The main focus of the trip will be the problems facing Oregon's rural areas in the provision of health care. Rural areas in Oregon and nationwide are struggling to provide the facilities and physicians necessary to meet demands for health care. Senator Packwood will chair 11 Senate Field Hearings on the subject during his trip. Senator Packwood hopes to work with Oregonians to identify the problems facing rural health care providers, and explore potential solutions to those problems.

Senator Packwood will also address the Lake Oswego Chamber of Commerce Leadership Forum on Thursday, January 11, and will meet with members of the Pacific Northwest International Trade Association on Friday, January 12.

Project HELP Helps Needy Stay Warm

As of Jan. 2nd, PGE customer and employee contributions to Project HELP reached more than $215,000, just in time to help needy people stay warm this winter.

In addition to the employee and customer donations, PGE shareholders contributed $40,000 to kick off the campaign in November.

PGE continues to seek customer support to help provide funding for emergency heating assistance to low-income people in its service territory. Eligible customers are able to apply directly to The Salvation Army for Project HELP funds by calling 233-6079.

Project HELP was organized to assist people who do not qualify for the Low-Income Energy Assistance Program (LIEAP) administered by the State Community Services Assistance Program. Last year, PGE raised more than $300,000 in contributions through Project HELP, assisting nearly 2,600 needy Oregon families with their winter fuel bills.

Fund Raising Event For The Martin Luther King, Jr. Scholarship Fund

In celebration of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday, the Martin Luther King, Jr. Scholarship Fund of Oregon joined together with the Friends of Martin Luther King Scholarships to raise funds for students in need of scholarship assistance.

Please join us for an evening of casino activities and dancing on Sunday, January 14th, 6:30 p.m. until 1:00 a.m. at the Oregon Air National Guard Officer's Club, NE Cornfoot Road, Portland, Oregon. Please call 280-6181 before January 12 to make reservations. Admittance will be invitation only.

The Friends of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Scholarship was started ten years ago by three friends: the late Dr. C. Jack Ryan, James Thomas, and Michael Jordan who shared birthdays in the month of January.

They decided to assist the youth in our community in receiving a college education by hosting an annual fund raiser and contributing the funds to the Martin Luther King Jr. Scholarship Fund of Oregon.

The Board of Directors of the Martin Luther King, Jr. Scholarship Fund of Oregon will be honoring these dedicated community members.

The Martin Luther King, Jr. Scholarship Fund was incorporated in 1971, and located on the Portland State University campus in offices donated by the University. The Scholarship Fund has provided about 1,700 scholarships to needy students, totaling more than $400,000 in educational assistance. The Board of Directors utilizes more than ninety-five percent of the contributions in direct scholarship assistance, with the small remainder going to defray operating expenses as a non-profit charitable organization. The generosity of corporations and concerned members of the community have opened many doors for our youth to have an educational experience.

Tucker Subject Of Interview

Ulysses Tucker, Jr., Public Affairs Producer for KATU-TV 2's Sunday Northwest, will be the featured guest on Proverbial Perspectives, a weekly talk show aired on KBOO FRM (90.7) this Sunday, Jan. 14th, at 7:30. The show is hosted by Eugene Rashad.

A native of Washington, D.C., Tucker will talk about careers in communications, producing television shows, keeping his dream alive as it relates to the birthday of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., and a host of topics. He is a graduate of the University of Portland, both undergraduate and graduate school. The show is one hour long.

Grant For New Drug Affected Baby Program at Emanuel Hospital

Emanuel has received 2.25 million dollars in a federal grant to set up a pilot program to help pregnant, drug using women. The program will help mothers with care for their babies throughout their pregnancy, delivery and the first two years of the child's life.

The program is called Project Network and received a lot of media attention last month at its kick-off conference, which was attended by both of Oregon's U.S. Senators, Bob Packwood, and Mark Hatfield, Jean Cohen, director of the program, Legacy Health officials, and community representatives that will be working together on the project.

The grant was one of only 18 awarded nationwide from a field of 350 applicants. Project Network will recruit participants from the Emanuel Plan Clinic, a paid care provider (P.C.O.) supported by the state of Oregon's Adult and Family Services Medicaid.

The program will create three teams consisting of clinical personnel, service providers and a community advisory board to work with women.

New Women Services

A blending of new and current services has created the Women's Service Center at Emanuel. It is housed in Room 2245, Emanuel Central, next to the Espresso Cart.

The programs within the center include: The 280-3400 Women's Services Information phone line and physician referral service. This phone line is staffed from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays for the community, staff and patients. Its staff provides referrals to Emanuel physicians, answers health related questions and helps callers find the right service at Emanuel to match their need.

Parent Education classes. These classes include childbirth education, a class for parents expecting a multiple birth, newborn care education, water aerobics for pregnant women, breast-feeding education, infant CPR instruction, a new mothers' support group and tours of the Family Birth Center.

Antepartum Fetal Evaluation Unit. This unit is housed in the Family Birth Center and offers evaluations to pregnant women whose physicians request these special tests.

A Clinical Specialist program for the education and orientation of in-house staff in Women's Services. The clinical specialists are Carol Roberts and Sandra Banta-Wright.

Christmas Party For Elementary School Children

On Saturday, Dec. 16, 1989 a Christmas party was held at King School for students attending elementary schools in the inner North/Northeast Portland neighborhoods.

It was sponsored by The Delta Sigma Theta sorority and the Black Employee Telecommunication Association (BETA) of U.S. West Communications. Toys were provided for all of the children, donated through events held by the two service organizations (DELTA's and BETA). The children were very excited. Some of them overheard saying "this is like Toy R Us!" There were over 60 children in attendance.
