Lawrence E. Miller Appointed
National Executive Director of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc.

Dr. Lawrence E. Miller,
National Executive Director
Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc.

Carter D. Womack, National President and the General Board of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. confirmed the appointment of Dr. Lawrence E. Miller as national executive director during their national board retreat on Nov. 9-12, 1989 at the Miami Lakes Inn, Miami, Florida.

In his new position, Dr. Miller serve as the chief officer of operations for the fraternity's national headquarters, staff and its more than 90,000 membership. Dr. Miller will become the third national executive director of the fraternity since its founding in 1914 at Howard University in Washington, D.C.

"Lawrence's extraordinary record as a skilled manager speaks for itself," said President Womack following the announcement of Miller's hiring. "His knowledge of the fraternity and his sensitivity to the challenges we face in the 1990s make him that rare individual who combines the best elements of creativity and executive acumen," Womack added.

Dr. Miller will assume his new position in January of 1990. Prior to that, he served as housing assistant with the Department of Community Planning, Housing and Development in Arlington, Virginia.

"I accept this position with great anticipation. I am excited at the opportunity to work with seven regional directors and the membership of our organization," said Miller. "I believe that we will conquer the challenges that face the African-American males which will then strengthen our communities."

Born in Columbia, South Carolina and reared in Raleigh, North Carolina, Dr. Miller is a member of Alpha Sigma Chapter of the Fraternity. He also is currently serving as chairman of Alpha Sigma's reactivation and recruitment campaign. He is also the eastern region's secretary for the fraternity. He serves on the executive council of the United Church of Christ which is the highest deliberation board for 1.7 million denomination.

Dr. Miller is listed in the 1982 edition of Outstanding Young Men of America and the 1989 edition of Who's Who Among Black Americans.
