

Strohecker's For All Shopping Needs

On The Move

For over 88 years, Stroheckers has served Portland's west hills with its rapidly expanding, well-stocked grocery mart. Since 1902, the family-owned operation has provided quality service and quality products to enhance its "Customer first", business approach. Offering a full service grocery line, delicatessen, a complete wine cellar and floral services, among more than 44,000 items in its inventory, Stroheckers is proud most of being one of the few grocers in town who still delivers to customers. While delivery is restricted primarily to senior and the handicapped, it is a service they have extended for years, and contributes largely to their booming business and overwhelming customer satisfaction. The business is also pleased with the introduction of a new product in its grocer line--Baker's Cajun Style Bar-B-Q Sauce. Stroheckers, a full union shop, employs 63 full and part time employees and is considering even further expansion.

JUDGE THE RECORD

As the gap between district and circuit courts narrows, it becomes imperative that a district court judge be qualified and experienced to handle a variety of cases, not just those normally associated with district court.

Such a judge is Judge Michael Marcus. Judge the record and you will see why retaining Judge Michael Marcus is our best defense against crime.

Rated first among 13 candidates for this position in the Oregon Bar Preference Poll (2/8/90).

One of only 9 candidates found qualified for appointment to the Oregon Supreme Court by the Oregon State Bar Board of Governors (1/22/90).

The judge with ten years' experience as a pre-trial judge and a demonstrated commitment to fighting crime.

Dealt the 1989 law which directs the Department of Corrections to provide judges with a directory of sentencing options and a guide to their effectiveness.

Author of several works to help ordinary citizens use the courts without a lawyer.

Not everything is worthy of speech, though all is worthy of thought.

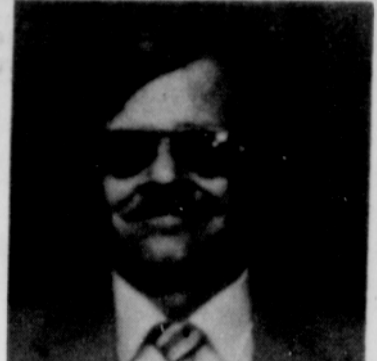

Who can find a virtuous woman? For her price is far above rubies. Her children arise up and call her blessed.

Proverbs 31:10, 28

CRED OF THE BLACK PRESS
