Melba Moore, Maya Angelou, The Winans on Showcase!

THE WINANS

Singer Melba Moore, author/educator Maya Angelou, contemporary gospel greats The Winans and saxophonist Grover Washington, Jr. star on EBONY/JET SHOWCASE the weekend of June 1st-June 3rd (consult your local listing for date and time). Powerhouse vocalist Melba Moore talks about the significance of the Negro spiritual, "Lift Every Voice and Sing," and why it was important to include it on her current album, "Soul Exposed." Various celebrities, including Dionne Warwick, Freddie Jackson and Jeffrey Osborne, lent their talents to the arrangement, with Debbie Allen directing the star-studded video.

Oscar the Grouch has a girlfriend!

Watch out world, Oscar the Grouch has a girlfriend! Yes, that's right, a girlfriend. They say there's a match for everyone, and now the world knows that this includes grouches.

Making her debut on the SESAME STREET LIVE stage is Grundgetta, an uncombed, fashion unconscious grouch. Grundgetta will take the stage in her uniquely grouchy style for the first time ever in SESAME STREET LIVE'S "Silly Dancing" appearing at the PORTLAND MEMORIAL COLISEUM, in Portland, Ore., Wednesday, June 13 through Sunday, June 17 for seven performances.

Oscar has definitely met his match of grouchiness in Grundgetta. She enjoys the same yucky things as "Oskie," such as junk and rainy days, and really likes to disagree with him. Most of all, she loves to silly dance, but only in a grouchy way -- of course. Grundgetta joins Big Bird and the rest of the dancing Sesame Street crew in the craziest, zaniest and silliest dancing ever.

This sensational 90-minute production has more audience participation and familiar songs than ever before.

SESAME STREET LIVE, now celebrating its 10th season, is presented by VEE Corporation in cooperation with Children's Television Workshop (CTW) and Jim Henson Productions. "Silly Dancing" was written by Norman Stiles, head writer for CTW's "Sesame Street."

Tickets are on sale for "Silly Dancing" at the Coliseum box office and all TicketMaster locations. Tickets are $10.00 and $8.00 with a $1.50 discount for children 12 and under. For more ticket information, please call 248-4496.
