CENSUS '90

THE CENSUS IS STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL YOUR ANSWERS ARE PROTECTED

United States Department of Commerce BUREAU OF THE CENSUS D-3224.3 Spring 1989

Here's How:

The law (Title 13 of the United States Code) does not allow welfare agencies, Immigration and Naturalization Service, Internal Revenue Service, courts, police, the military - any institution or anyone - to obtain information showing how you answered the census questionnaire. While attempts have been made to get this information through the courts, the United States Supreme Court has ruled that individual answers are absolutely confidential. The 1990 Census records will be held confidential for 72 years - until the year 2062.

Census Bureau employees take an oath to keep individual answers to the questionnaire confidential. They cannot reveal information about any individual or family to anyone outside the Census Bureau. An employee breaking this confidence is subject to severe penalties - up to $5,000 in fines and five years in prison.

The census questionnaire does not ask for an individual's Social Security number. The only reason names and addresses are asked is to make sure that no one is missed, or anyone is counted more than once.

The Census Bureau tallies only answers to questions on an individual's form along with answers to the same questions from all other census forms. This creates statistical totals for geographic areas. It is these numeric totals, not personal answers, that are then published and put to thousands of uses.

There is no access from outside Census Bureau buildings to any confidential information in Census Bureau computers. In fact, the tapes with the combined data carry no personal identification.

"Let's Button Up Crime" Campaign Returns for 2nd Season

The "Let's Button Up Crime" Committee has begun meeting to plan the 1990 "Let's Button Up Crime" dance.

This community event raised over $11,000 dollars last year to knock-out crime through supporting community crime prevention programs in Gresham.

This year the goal is to raise twice as much money - but to do so, the committee needs more community help and hardworking volunteers.

The dance committee has targeted Sept. 15 as the new date for this 50's dance. And this year's location will be Gresham Skate World. The Multnomah Hot Rod Council will sponsor for the second consecutive year a classic car show-and-shine at Gresham Fred Meyer.

But, everyone's holding their breath for the final word and confirmation about the 50's group which is rumored to appear at that place and time.

The "Let's Button Up Crime" committee now has a phone message center, the number is 665-6283. Please call if you need more information or can help.
