Thank You JobNet Partners, Affiliates and Employers

We want to put Portlanders to work because a thriving work force is vital to a healthy community. JobNet is a network of organizations helping to put area businesses in touch with qualified workers. And it's working. Since its beginning in 1989, JobNet has placed nearly 300 individuals in jobs. Of those hired, 43% were minorities and 95% were from low or moderate income households.

We salute JobNet partners State of Oregon Employment Division, Portland Community College, Employment Training and Business Services, The Private Industry Council, Mt. Hood Community College, Clackamas Community College, and the more than 125 JobNet affiliates who help "get the word out" about job opportunities.

If you have a new or expanding business and are looking for qualified workers, contact the State Employment Division at 280-6046 for more information about JobNet. If you're looking for work, visit the Employment Division office at 5411 N.E. Martin Luther King, Jr. Boulevard, Suite B.

The Portland Development Commission staffs the JobNet program and donated this advertising space.
