A Silence

*A man acts as an infinite being
He ladens his wisdom to help the infidel
A silence that is never spoken in his mystery.
Reaching out not rejecting essence.*

*Beyond believing in myths lies the truth.
Silence is where silence was
No one knows better than man the way out of eternity,
And asking is not life or death
But a way to claim the forgotten
Even though nothing was boughten.*

NPBC CELEBRATION

On June 15, 1990, North Portland Bible (NPBC) held its eight annual Celebration of Achievement, "Overflowing with Thankfulness", hosted by Antioch Missionary Baptist Church. NPBC came into being in 1982, when a group of individuals responded to the need for low-cost, convenient Biblical instruction for community residents. Since its inception, over 300 individuals from over 30 community churches have benefited from the offerings of the Bible College. In turn, those students have shared their knowledge with their fellow church members and scores of others. The Celebration of Achievement is a means of recognizing students who have completed a sequence or course of study.

Students receiving recognition at the Celebration were: Princess Bailey, Cora Jean Boswell, Earnestine Cestelle, Rev. Charles Collins, Rev. Percy Davis, James Hall, Audrey Henry, Willie Ranson, Rita Redeau, Oscar Vilches, Cora Williams, Normal Williams, and Fred Wilson.

This occasion provided an excellent opportunity for NPBC to honor outgoing Board Chair, Rev. Aaron Hamlin, who has chaired the Board since the death of NPBC's first Board Chair, the late Rev. John W. Garlington, II. It was also a time to introduce the new Board Chair, Rev. Donald Frazier, pastor of Mt. Sinai Baptist Church. Rev. Frazier exhorted those assembled to become fellow workers, along with the clergy, in winning souls for the Kingdom of God.

It was with great joy, that Rev. Frazier announced the progress of NPBC in locating its own facility. Final negotiations are underway for property. Up to this point, Maranatha Church has graciously permitted NPBC office space and classrooms in its building. In response to the accelerated financial needs of NPBC, a series of fundraising events will take place within the community over the next few months. A Summer Tea is being planned by Friends of NPBC. September will bring a Gospel Music Concert, showcasing the talents of local soloists, groups and choirs. On November 2, NPBC will hold its second annual Fall Banquet and Rally
