Locals Only Comitted to Artists of the Northwest

BY TONY WASHINGTON

A native of Salt Lake City, Utah, Donald Bankhead Jr., came to Portland in 1980. He enjoyed the people and the potential prospects for business here. The transition from Utah to the Rose City wasn't a difficult choice for him. Donald Bankhead, Dan Fouse, Art Thomas and Sarah Moran are co-owners of Locals Only a record store that caters to N/W artists focusing on Rock, R&B, Gospel, Christian, Funk and Raggae music. Locals Only has two locations: Beaverton on Farmington Rd. and downtown Portland on 2nd at the New Market Village. Mr Bankheads' feelings are to give local artists the opportunity to get more exposure through Locals Only. This Friday The Calvin Walker Band will be performing live in the mall at 7:00 pm. The Portland Observer supports Donald Bankhead Jr. in his outstanding efforts.

 WHISPERS release first album in three years: After a two-year hiatus, the twenty year-old band WHISPERS resurfaced with a new record label, but the same distinctive sound that's earned them three gold albums and millions of fans. The two-year break gave them the opportunity to, as band member Walter Scott put it, "experiment musically." As evidenced by their new album "More Of The Night."

PORTLAND OPERA IS LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD MEN
 Portland Opera has immediate openings for 12 young, well-built men who are interested in taking part in the exciting world of opera production. These volunteer supernumerary roles require no previous stage experience and offer the chance to share in the comradery of cast and crew in the opera's upcoming production of Richard Strauss's Salome on the Portland Civic Auditorium stage (November 10, 14, and 17).
 Volunteers for these non-speaking, non-singing roles should be between the ages of 18 and 35, be physically well built and willing to participate in 10 evening rehearsals and three evening performances between October 27 and November 17, 1990.
 Interested men should plan on attending an introductory meeting at the Portland Opera office (1516 SW Alder, Portland) on Sunday, October 14, from 3-5:00 PM. More information can be obtained by calling the Opera office at (503) 241-1407.
