

ADOPTION IS KID STUFF

Approximately 100 kids in Oregon are waiting to join permanent adoptive families. These include older kids, able-bodied kids, not-so-able-bodied kids with brothers and sisters, bright kids, kids with intellectual disabilities, drug or alcohol exposed kids, Black kids, White kids, Native American kids, Hispanic kids, all kinds of kids.

African-American adoptive parents are needed for kids like five-year-old Michael, and his three-year-old sister Michelle.

Organizations such as The Special Needs Adoption Coalition and One Church One Child are working hard to prove

"there's no such thing as an unadoptable child."

You don't have to be rich or married or childless or own your own home to adopt. No fees are charged for this Oregon adoption program, and financial assistance may be available to assist in the child's care.

To find out more about adoption and waiting kids, call One Church One Child at 285-7634 or Special Needs Adoption Coalition at 222-9661.

Or call your local Children's Services Division.

OR come to "Adoption Celebration" Sunday, November 18, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. at the Galleria downtown.
