Actor From Do The Right Thing To Speak On Racism At Willamette University

Giancarlo Esposito, who played the character "Buggin' Out" in the Spike Lee movie Do the Right Thing, will speak on the subject of racism at 8 p.m., Feb. 21 in Smith Auditorium at Willamette University.

Esposito, 31, has appeared in such plays as Maggie Flynn, Merrily We Roll Along and Don't Get God Started. He has appeared in television on soap operas and in guest roles on Miami

Vice, Spenser: For Hire and Legwork.

Half Italian and half black, Esposito has borne the brunt of racism all his life and the message he takes to his audience is that racism must end now. His lecture at Willamette is sponsored by the Office of Multicultural Student Affairs and is free to the public.

For more information call Joyce Greiner at 370-6265. Arrangements can be made for the hearing impaired.

The O'Jays, R & B's Legendary Greats

It's A Whole 'Nutha Thing for Eddie Levert, Walter Williams, and Sammy Strain—who together make up THE O'JAYS, a threesome who over the course of a quarter of a century, has consistently made music that is fresh, innovative, and passionate. It is that idiosyncratic O'JAYS sound, the sultry, gut-wrenching and sheer power of Edie Levert and Walter Williams; vocals, coupled with the ability to grow, change, and mature with the times, which has given THE O'JAYS the legendary status which they fully deserve.

With a brand new EMI album titled IT'S A WHOLE 'NUTHA THING due out in January, THE O'JAYS are warming up with a few select shows across the country to preview some of the new material, and also rehearse some classic O'JAYS.

Jefferson High School Presents Jazz Night

Jefferson High School presents its annual Jazz Night this year on February 7, (Thursday) at 7:30 pm in the Jefferson Auditorium, 5210 N. Kerby St. This year's program features the Jefferson Jazz Band, directed by David Bryan; the Jazz Improv Combo, under the direction of Matt Schiff and David Bryan; and the Jefferson Jazz-Artists Combo with its outstanding professional musicians: David Bryan, trombone; Dean Comely trumpet; Dee Wiggins, drums; Tim Gilson, bass; Earle Minor, saxophone; Matt Schiff, guitar; and Gordon Lee, piano. These artists are all widely-known performers and teachers and together, represent a fine collection of local jazz talent.

This is a benefit concert for the Jef-erson Concert Band's European Tour and will fund its participation in the 20th International Youth and Music Festival in Vienna, Austria, in July 1991.

Students and parents are working hard to raise the $125,000 that is required to make this trip a reality. A Dinner/Dance and Reno Night is scheduled for April 13 at the Red Lion/Lloyd Center and a final Bon Voyage Concert at the Intermediate Theater of the Portland Center for the Performing Arts is planned for June 3.

Tickets for Jazz Night are available at Jefferson High School and may be purchased at the door: $2.50/Students and seniors; $5 Adults; and $10 Families.

LeVar Burton has been seen "rolling" around several U.S. cities.

In a major effort to help kids want to read for pleasure, Burton, nine-year host of Reading Rainbow, has joined forces with Bozell Advertising, Mpls., TDI (Transportation Displays Incorporated), the National Science Foundation and Reading Rainbow's first ever out-of-home public service advertising campaign.

The campaign's goal is to make influential adults of at-risk kids aware of Reading Rainbow—a public television program that encourages 5 to 8 year-olds to read for pleasure. We want parents and adults to encourage children to watch the show and in turn get excited about reading.

To reach this goal, Burton will drive the message "A TV Program That Turns Kids On To Reading: Reading Rainbow" home on exterior bus posters and billboards located in three major U.S. cities, Mpls./St. Paul, New York and Los Angeles. More importantly, the message will appear in both English and Spanish in New York and Los Angeles. Following the success of the campaign in these test markets, the creative design will be provided to PBS stations across the country enabling them to plan their own localized out-of-home campaigns.
