Albertson's Hearing Slated For April 22; Bureau Amends Charges

The contested case hearing requested by Albertson's Inc. to defend itself on charges of violating Oregon child labor laws will be held in Portland on April 22 at 9 a.m. in Room 311 of the State Office Building, 1400 S.W. Fifth Avenue.

Albertson's faces amended charges proposed by the Oregon Bureau of Labor and Industries which double the number of alleged violations and nearly doubles the fine.

The amended charges add 69 allegations of failure to procure employment certificates, and 75 allegations that Albertson's allowed minors to work without work permits. In addition, the amended document deletes four of the minors named in the original notice, adds three, and expressly alleges that the violations were "willful and repeated." Total assess civil penalties for the amended charges are $144,500.

The original "Notice of Intent to File Civil Penalties" filed by the Wage and Hour Division of the Oregon Bureau of Labor and Industries cited Albertson's for one failure to maintain, preserve and keep completed employment certificates available. Penalties were assessed at $72,500.

The new allegations are based on additional investigations conducted June 12 through August 1, 1990. The bureau added charges relating to stores in Medford, Klamath Falls, Grants Pass, The Dalles, Pendleton, Portland (NE 122nd, and Cully Blvd.), Baker City and LaGrande.

The hearing date was originally set for September 20, 1990, but has been postponed five times. On April 2 of this year, the bureau filed the motion to amend charges which was granted April 10.
