

A future should be something everyone can afford.

Bob Lanier

I was lucky. A talent for basketball helped me make it. But not all kids are that lucky. For many young Blacks education is the only way. That's why Miller Lite and the National Basketball Association created the Thurgood Marshall Black Education Fund. To support public Black colleges and their students. Public colleges do not get the backing that some private colleges do. With your contributions, the Thurgood Marshall Fund can help deserving students pay for schooling, and preserve the quality of our public Black colleges.

So give to the Thurgood Marshall Black Education Fund. With Miller Lite and you, we can help put a higher education within reach. Because a future should be something everyone can afford.

THE THURGOOD MARSHALL BLACK EDUCATION FUND

I want to support the Thurgood Marshall Black Education Fund. Here's my donation of $ _____ towards the future of our public Black colleges.

PASS THIS SIMPLE TEST, and YOU'VE JUST ABOUT QUALIFIED FOR A LOAN from US.

1. Do you really need the money?

YES  NO

2. Do you have a good history of paying your bills?

YES  NO

3. Do you have a steady income?

YES  NO

If you answered yes to those questions up there, you should talk to us about a loan.

No kidding.

You see, we've come up with something called The Opportunity Loan. It's a more flexible version of the regular way we lend money.

Of course, we're still a bank. And banks have to say legal stuff like we're an equal opportunity lender, member F.D.I.C. And we can't actually promise you the money in this ad.

But if you call or come fill out an application, your odds of getting the money you need go up considerably.
