

Job opportunities at Metro

The Metropolitan Service District (Metro) handles regionwide concerns in the urban areas of Clackamas, Multnomah and Washington counties. Metro is responsible for solid waste management, operation of the Metro Washington Park Zoo, transportation and land-use planning, urban growth boundary management, technical services to local governments and the Metropolitan Exposition-Recreation Commission, which operates the Memorial Coliseum Complex, Portland Civic Stadium, Oregon Convention Center and the Portland Center for the Performing Arts.

We have a variety of job opportunities at each of these locations. Metro is an equal-opportunity employer. We encourage qualified women and minorities to apply for job openings. We also encourage disadvantaged and women-owned business enterprises to compete for and participate in contracting and procurement programs.

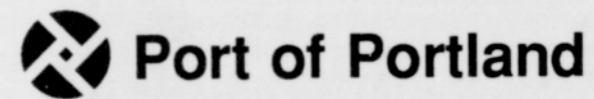

Call Metro's Jobs Available Number, 220-1177, for current openings.

METRO 2000 SW First Ave., Portland, OR 97201-5398, (503) 221-1646

The Port of Portland is committed to the principles and spirit of affirmative action and equal employment opportunity. We extend employment opportunities to all individuals regardless of race, color, sex, age, religion, national origin, veteran, or handicap status.

An Equal Opportunity Employer
Job Hotline (503) 731-7480

Citizen Involvement Committee

PUT YOURSELF IN THIS PICTURE.....

The Portland Police Bureau is still open for business..... We've hired over 120 officers in the last two years and are still hiring. If you are interested in a challenging career and making a positive change in your community, contact the Portland Police Bureau, personnel division. Call 796-3200 and ask for officer Carolyn Crawford or Officer David Yamasaki.

The Multnomah County Citizen Involvement Committee and the Board of County Commissioners recently honored 56 persons who volunteer for the County-funded programs.

Robert Richardson

Robert Richardson has been tenacious and consistent in his desire to give young men a positive role model, an advocate for services and a catalyst for the planning and organization of activities. He was instrumental in the delivery of the "gang" talent show held in January; in a horseback riding event at the coast; and in day-to-day mentoring. He offers encouragement, monitors follow-through and responds to crisis as they occur.

Robert began his volunteer services to the Juvenile Court through his involvement in a program at Immanuel Temple called Re-Direction, a grassroots community response to gang problems in the neighborhood.

Nominated by: Juvenile Court

Roy Washington

Not pictured

Roy Washington has volunteered his time as an assistant facilitator in "Streetlaw" skill building groups. His caring attitude has enabled rival gang members to momentarily forget their differences and become involved in weekly two hour group discussions regarding gang involvement. Roy began assisting in March of 1990 and has been consistent and energetic in his participation. As of March 1991, Roy was hired on a part-time employee basis.

Robert Richardson

Alyce J. Ross

Nominated by: Juvenile Court

Georgina Jones

Not pictured

Georgina Jones has provided a wonderful role model for adolescent girls involved in the Juvenile Court system. Most of the girls she has dealt with through the Juvenile Court system have been there due to prostitution charges. She has been there for these girls when they had no one else. She is a professional business woman who's nurturing involvement with these girls has been indispensable.

Nominated by: Juvenile Court

Alyce J. Ross

Lace Ross is a volunteer mentor at Sellwood Middle School in the Linking Lifetimes Program, mentoring all African American male students. Sellwood is one of 14 schools in the nation where "senior mentors" visit the schools several times a week, providing a consistent caring adult for students and transmitting their knowledge and perspectives to the younger generation.

She volunteers one day a week as a receptionist at the OASIS program for senior citizens and is a Travel Club volunteer for that program.

Nominated by: Chair Gladys McCoy

3301 N.E. SANDY BV

239-0838 "It's your future, plan it wisely"

TRAINING FOR TRUE PROFESSIONALS

EDWARD
WADSWORTH
INSTITUTE
FOR HAIR DESIGN

Ask when classes start
Contact Mrs. Shirley Reams

APPOINTMENTS OR WALK-INS FOR SERVICES
PERFORMED BY STUDENTS UNDER PROFESSIONAL SUPERVISION
FINANCIAL AID AVAILABLE FOR THOSE WHO QUALIFY

