"SOAPDISH"

Psychologists say, "Soap Opera viewers like to see somebody whose life is worse than their own". In "Soapdish", not only are the lives of "The Sun Also Sets" soap opera characters worse than the viewers', it turns out that the stars' real lives are worse than the viewers.

"Soapdish" is a zany, satiric look at the hassles and the hustles of daytime T.V. The T.V. cast is filled with scheming rivals, dealing with last-minute script revisions to raise sagging ratings. The lower the ratings go the more outrageous the plots become. The off-screen conniving and manipulative way the cast carries on their liaisons is hilarious. The acting will make you smile. The over acting will make you laugh out loud.

It is rare when a movie can boast of having three academy award winners. Sally Field plays Celeste Talbert, the soaps most popular, yet insecure star. Celeste goes to the local shopping centers when she needs an ego recharging. Celeste takes the soap opera's writer and her best friend Rose Schwartz (Whoopie Goldberg) to "work" the crowd. Whoopie reminds us why she won an academy award with a stellar supporting role performance as the only sane person in an insane business. The comedy is a little slow taking off, but when Kevin Kline shows up in a second-rate dinner theater you'll be glad you came to the movie.

ADVERTISE in the PORTLAND OBSERVER

Cascade Locks, Oregon Sternwheeler Days

June 21-22-23

The eighth annual Sternwheeler Days celebration promises to be the highlight of the Columbia Gorge this summer.

Sponsored by the Columbia Gorge Lions Club, with both financial and man-power assistance for many local businesses and citizens, as well as the City and Port of Cascade Locks.

Two and a half days of fun and entertainment for all. Kids games and rides; wine, cheese and smoked salmon tasting; food and craft booths; Sternwheeler rides; and the best yet parade which starts at 11:00 AM on Saturday, June 22nd.

There will be a raffle drawing for a sail board outfit. Several local organizations will also be having drawings for prizes at their booths during the festival.

Thunder Island will be the weekend home for the Mountain Men, who will be dressed in their traditional costumes. They promise more displays and entertainment than ever this year.

There will be Sternwheeler Days hats and T-shirts for sale at the information booth on the festival grounds. Souvenir programs are available from many businesses as well as in the information booth. We ask that you support the celebration.

Admission to the festival grounds are free. This would be a good weekend to invite your friends or relatives to visit. Camping facilities are available in the park. Marine Park looks better than ever this year. Many improvements can be seen around the visitor center and the Sternwheeler loading area.

Come and help us welcome the Sternwheeler back to Cascade Locks. Last year's attendance was over 18,500 persons. We expect more this year.

Pioneer Courthouse Square

It's big. It's crunchy. It's smooth. It's the eighth year of Pioneer Courthouse Square's Peanut Butter and Jam Sessions. Downtown Portland's oldest outdoor music series, sponsored by The Portland Business Journal and U.S. Banks, kicks off at noon on Thursday, June 13th, and continues on Tuesdays and Thursdays through August 15.

Like your peanut butter crunchy? Try the rockin' blues of the Blubinos, the roadhouse stomp of The Switchmasters, the rootsy rock of Mystery Train, or the chunky reggae backbeat of Dub Squad.

Smooth more your style? Nothing's smoother than Lloyd Jones's soul, the deft picking of the nationally renowned Country Gazette, or the slinky strut of Paulette N Power.

And Peanut Butter and Jam has a worldwide flavor. Kotoja, a twelve-piece Afro-beat band and the spicy eleven-piece salas of Conjunto Allegre are just two of the treats. We're even serving up some savory downhome Barbeque (Orchestra) with hot jug jazz.

A special child's portion is available on July 30th, when T.& O. Railroad, Albert Alter and hungry sharks from OMSI stir up a savory mix of music, mime and museum mayhem. With 18 shows to choose from, featuring the best in blues, worldbeat, country and rock, you're sure to find something to your taste.

For your tastebuds, Paradise Bakery is cooking up a record breaking eight-foot peanut butter and jam cookie. It will join the nutty and infectious Crazy Eights at Center stage on June 13th, our eighth year season opener.

And who says there's no such thing as a free lunch? Opening day features a drawing with prizes from the food folks at Cascades in Pioneer Place. Someone will win lunch from Cascades for every Tuesday concert, somebody gets lunch on Thursdays, and one lucky and well-fed individual wins lunch for every Tuesday and Thursday of the series.

You don't have to be president to win. Just be there opening day, June 13, and throughout the summer. Join us at noon for lunch and tasty tunes. It's going to be a mouthful.
