BY JERRY KINGERY
In the Beginning

In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

And God said, Let there be light: and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good: and God divided the light from the darkness. And God called the light Day, and the darkness Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters. And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament: and it was so. And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day.

And God said, Let the waters under the heaven be gathered together unto one place, and let the dry land appear: and it was so. And God called the dry land Earth; and the gathering together of the waters called he Seas: and God saw that it was good. And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so. And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good. And the evening and the morning were the third day.

And God said, Let there be lights in the firmament of the heaven to divide the day from the night; and let them be for signs, and for seasons, and for days, and years: And let them be for lights in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth: and it was so. And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also. And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth, And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good. And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

From Genesis 1

Creation Finished

And God said, Let the waters bring forth abundantly the moving creature that hath life, and fowl that may fly above the earth in the open firmament of heaven. And God created great whales, and every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly, after their kind, and every winged fowl after his kind: and God saw that it was good. And God blessed them, saying, Be fruitful, and multiply, and fill the waters in the seas, and let fowl multiply in the earth. And the evening and the morning were the fifth day.

And God said, Let the earth bring forth the living creature after his kind, cattle, and creeping thing, and beast of the earth after his kind: and it was so. And God made the beast of the earth after his kind, and cattle after their kind, and every thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind: and God saw that it was good.

And God said, Let us make man in our image, after our likeness; and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth. So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him: male and female created he them. And God blessed them, and God said unto them, Be fruitful, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it: and have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over every living thing that moveth upon the earth.

And God said, Behold, I have given you every herb bearing seed, which is upon the face of all the earth, and every tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed; to you it shall be for meat. And to every beast of the earth, and to every fowl of the air, and to every thing that creepeth upon the earth, wherein there is life, I have given every green herb for meat: and it was so.

And God saw every thing that he had made, and, behold, it was very good. And the evening and the morning were the sixth day.

Thus the heavens and the earth were finished, and all the host of them. And on the seventh day God ended his work which he had made; and he rested on the seventh day from all his work which he had made. And God blessed the seventh day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his work which God created and made.

From Genesis 1 and 2

The Garden Of Eden

These are the generations of the heavens and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens, And every plant of the field before it was in the earth, and every herb of the field before it grew: for the LORD God had not caused it to rain upon the earth, and there was not a man to till the ground. But there went up a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the ground. And the LORD God formed man of the dust of the ground, and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

And the LORD God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed. And out of the ground made the LORD God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

And the LORD God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a help meet for him. And out of the ground the LORD God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air; and brought them unto Adam to see what he would call them: and whatsoever Adam called every living creature, that was the name thereof. And Adam gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for Adam there was not found an help meet for him.

And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon Adam, and he slept: and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof; And the rib, which the LORD God had taken from man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man. And Adam said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man. Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh.

Local Newsman/Producer Dies

Veteran news reporter, commentator and documentary producer Jon Tuttle died Sunday, July 28, at Emanuel Hospital in Portland of complications arising from leukemia. He had been a documentary producer for Oregon Public Broadcasting since September, 1989.

Tuttle 49, a native of Portland, had been a member of KGW-TV news staff from 1966 to 1989 and was Channel 8 News commentator for his last two years at KGW. Before that he was a part-time sports writer for The Oregonian. He attended both Portland State University and Indiana University, where he majored in journalism and languages, focusing on Albanian, Russian, and Spanish.

Tuttle was a highly regarded and prize winning journalist. When announcing Tuttle's appointment to the OPB Documentary Unit, OPB Vice President of Production John Lindsey commented, "Tuttle's approach to journalism employs the highest standards of ethics and integrity. Without question, he is one of the finest TV writers in the region."

During his tenure at OPB, Tuttle produced such hard-hitting documentaries as the Frontline production, Anatomy of an Oil Spill, which analyzed the Exxon Valdes environmental disaster. The piece won the Gold Plaque Award of the Chicago International Film Festival in April of this year. Following the Frontline production, Tuttle produced Local Color, which examined the history of racism in Oregon. That production earned a 1991 Cascade Awards Festival Prize. Tuttle had a new documentary in the works at OPB, All About You, in which he was investigating a number of troubling issues about an individual's right to privacy. In describing the project, Tom Doggett, OPB's Vice President for Television Programming, said, "Only last week I saw the roughcut of All About You and was so excited with it that we decided to include it as a prime element of our new fall season showcase week." The program is scheduled to air on OPB's television network Wednesday, October 2, at 8:00 pm.

In addition to the Chicago Film Festival and Cascade Awards, Tuttle captured many others, including a 1984 Peabody Award for Rahneesh: Update, and a 1985 Golden Gate Award at the San Francisco Film Festival for his mini documentary, Toys.

Tuttle's survivors include a son, Jonathan Patrick Tuttle, 23; a daughter, Kelen A., 9; sisters, Patricia Budzinski and Fran Leahy; a brother, Greg Tuttle, and a companion of five years, Paula Craig. A memorial service is scheduled for 10:00 am, Thursday, August 1st, in the OPB television studio, 7140 SW Macadam Avenue in Portland.
