

*"This is no time for apathy or complacency.
This is a time for vigorous and positive action."*

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.
1929 - 1968

"In the spirit of Dr. King, let us join in working to make Portland a city of opportunity and justice for all"

City Commissioner Dick Bogle

"The dream is one of equality of opportunity, of privilege and property widely distributed; a dream of a land where men will not take necessities from the many to give luxuries to the few; a dream of a land where men do not agree that the color of a man's skin determines the content of his character; a dream of a place where all our gifts and resources are held not for us alone but as instruments of service for the rest of humanity; the dream of a country where every man will respect the dignity and worth of all human personality, and men will dare to live together as brothers . . ."

"Democracy means equal justice, equity in every aspect of our society. I think Martin understood from the very beginning that this goal could not be accomplished all at once. He knew he could not take a people who were largely uneducated and unrepresented and suddenly transform them into political activists who could immediately change the system. And he also knew that the basic problem in our society had to do with economic injustice . . . Believe it or not, he spoke these words to me when I first met him."

Coretta Scott King, in We Shall Overcome

"I believe that unarmed truth and unconditional love will have the final say in reality"

Birthday presence.

What would you give Martin on his birthday?

Can you separate the man from his ideas?

How do you gift wrap a dream?
Can you put Peace in a box?

Maybe you could send him a world of people who are glad that he lived, who are trying to live the lessons of compassion
of courage of a right and wrong

where truth does not discriminate, but can be found in the soul

A world of people trying simply to do what is right.

Those lessons,
that he left us

Happy Birthday, Dr King

USWEST
Making the most of your time.
