

Artist's Paintings To Be Displayed At University Of Portland

Painter Mark Little will display his art in the Buckley Center Gallery at the University of Portland Feb. 10-27. Admission is free. Little uses sunlight as one of the primary stimuli in paintings. His art reflects a strong sense of time and spirituality. The painter likens that to a sense of deja vu. A former art instructor at the Watts Tower Art Center in Los Angeles, Little has also done back drop paintings for Universal Studios in Hollywood, Calif. His work is part of the permanent collection of US Bancorp, the City of Portland and State of Oregon Department of Human Resources. Little has also completed a beautification project for the U.S. Veteran's Administration in Portland. The University of Portland is an independently governed, residential, four-year Catholic University offering a curriculum of arts, sciences, humanities and professional programs at the undergraduate and graduate levels.

Progressive Realty, Inc.

317 NE Killingsworth St.
283-4542 Fax 283-2977

Progressive Realty is strategically located in inner North/Northeast Portland. We are your Neighborhood Realtors, we live in the neighborhood, we know the real estate market out there. We are professionals equipped with tools and Agents to serve your neighborhood in both buying and selling real estate.

We contend that it is not necessary for the North/Northeast neighborhoods to take the neighborhood out of the neighborhood for buying and selling Real Estate. There are other great Real Estate Companies in Portland, but Progressive Realty is located in the neighborhood and can give you better service. We care about our neighborhoods and strive to circulate moneys earned at least two to three times in the neighborhood before leaving it.

Why not give Progressive Realty a chance to handle all your Real Estate needs. Call C.F. (Cliff) Richardson or any of the Agents in the company.

FEBRUARY IS BLACK HISTORY MONTH

Applegate School Students Can Pick "Only One" From a Room Full of Free Books

Applegate Elementary School students faced tough decisions in choosing just one free book from a room full Friday, January 17, beginning at 9:30 a.m. at the school, 7650 N. Commercial St.

More than 300 Applegate School students chose "just the right book" when they received free ones purchased with funds contributed by Domino's Pizza, Bank of America and the Black United Fund.

Supporting the day's focus on books, students attended a special performance by professional storyteller, Sara Kirchfeld.

Students will have two more opportunities to receive free books by the end of the school year, thanks to the donors.

Emergency Pediatric Care Training Offered

"Emergency Pediatric Care," a live interactive telecourse, will be offered on four consecutive Tuesdays from 7 to 9 p.m. at Lane Community College beginning Feb. 11. The course is designed for emergency medical technicians (EMTs) and other emergency health care providers and is approved for 16 hours of continuing education credits by Oregon Health Division for all EMTs.

Participants will learn pediatric assessment and management, participate in simulated medical and trauma emergency case studies, and practice pediatric procedures while learning how to assist Advanced Life Support (ALS) Personnel.

This course has been approved through ED-NET, the statewide satellite education network. It is produced by Oregon Research and Education Foundation and local community colleges throughout Oregon. It is funded in part by the Oregon Health Division and Oregon ED-NET.

The cost is $110 and registration is required. To register, or for more information, contact Telecourses at LCC at 726-2260.
