

Northwest UFO Group - NUFOG
Invites you to our monthly meeting!
Sunday, July 19th, 1992

Pensacola, Florida MUFON field investigator, Vicki Lyons, will present a spectacular video and slide presentation on The Five Years of the Gulf Breeze, Florida UFO's.

Not only will you see some of Ed Walters' photographs, you will also see photographs that members of the Gulf Breeze Research Team (GBRT) have taken.

The continuous sightings of UFO's in the sky over Gulf Breeze since 1987 have attracted investigators, researchers, and film crews from all over the world. Such notable researchers as Bruce Maccabee, PhD (Naval Surface Weapons Center), Colin Andrews (Crop Circle Specialist, England), and Steven Greer, M.D. (C-SETI), have been to Gulf Breeze to investigate and witness these phenomenon. Please join us for this exciting afternoon of adventure and education!

Sunday July 19th, 1992 * 2:00 pm - 5 pm * Mount Hood Community College * 26000 SE Stark St. * Gresham.

From I-84 East, take the Wood Village Exit onto NE 238th (238 becomes NE 242nd), turn left onto Stark and follow the signs. Mount Hood Community College is on the right.

For more information call: (503) 699-UFOS, 699-8367. Suggested Donation - $4.

Public Service
Announcement

Volunteers on the Parent Helpline provide support and resource information to Oregonians who are struggling with the challenges of parenting. This 24 hour service makes a difference for families and helps to prevent child abuse.

If you have good listening skills, care about children and parents and can give four hours a week; you can be a part of this important program. Complete training and ongoing support for crisis intervention, problem solving and referral information is provided.

Call Sue for additional information at 238-8819.

PWCL Needs Volunteers

The Portland Women's Crises Line is pleased to announce openings for its volunteer Board of Directors. PWCL is a feminist, social change, social service agency, serving women and children (and their supportive families and friends) who are victims/survivors of domestic and sexual violence.

Applicants must commit to: completion of a 46 hour training, fundraising, attendance at Board and committee meetings and a two year term of office.

For further information and a Board application, call 232-9751. Women of color are encouraged to apply.

Portland Exhibition

The Clothesline Project demonstrates the prevalence of violence against women, with a visual impact similar to the AIDS quilt or the Vietnam Memorial. The project was originated by the Cape Cod Women's Agenda in 1990 and in 1991, Portland women began their own Clothesline Project to bring their stories of violence and suffering before the public. The Clothesline gives every woman a voice and a place to be heard. The project is holding a Portland Exhibition on Saturday, July 18, 1992 from 12 noon until 4 pm. The exhibition will be held at Peninsula Park on North Albina & Portland Blvd. The park is served by Tri-Met buses #4 and #40. Tee Shirts can be made at the exhibition. For more information, donations, or to volunteer, call Yvonne, 288-8958 or Pat, 289-2097.

Low-Income
Legal Help Available

Multnomah County Legal Aid Services is an independent, nonprofit agency that provides legal assistance to low-income people in Multnomah County in non-criminal cases. In April, Legal Aid opened its North/Northeast Community Office at Portland Community College Campus as part of our effort to meet the legal needs of low-income people, especially those in the various minority communities. Taking individual cases in areas such as job discrimination, housing, welfare, and divorce is the major part of our work.

Trail Ride and Breakfast
To Benefit Disabled
Riding Program

H.O.R.S.E.S. For The Physically Challenged is holding its fourth annual fundraising Trail Ride on Sunday, August 9th, at 9:00 a.m. in Scotts Mills. This year the event includes, breakfast, a scenic ride through the forest, poker and other games, an auction and even a "Mad Hatter" hat judging contest for riders or their horses.

The event is being sponsored by Silverton Lions Club and will benefit H.O.R.S.E.S. For The Physically Challenged, an organization providing horseback riding for people with disabilities. Suggested donation is $8.00 for adults and $4.00 age ten and under.
