NASCD Selects New Director

Lynda K. Anderson, Executive Director

The National Association for Sickle Cell Disease, Inc., (NASCD) announced the appointment of the new Executive Director, Lynda K. Anderson by Xernona Clayton, Vice President, Turner Broadcasting System and Chair of the NASCD Board. "We have chosen the right person at the right time. Our new Director has the stamina and management skills that will take us into the 21st century," said Ms. Clayton.

NASCD is a Los Angeles based organization with nationwide community sickle cell programs which recently celebrated 20 years of providing education, research and patient services centering on the sickle cell conditions. Sickle cell disease is an inherited, incurable condition which primarily affects African-Americans.

Ms. Anderson has extensive experience in administration, public relations and the nonprofit sector. She has been vice president for special projects for the National Black United Fund, and public relations director for the Brotherhood Crusade in Los Angeles, CA. Until recently, she was co-owner and operator of a specialty shoe salon in Culver City, CA. Ms. Anderson brings to NASCD a varied and determined background.

"I welcome the challenge to direct this organization which pioneered an effort to identify and educate the carriers of a genetic disease. We are on the brink of the 21st Century, and I want to help us get to a time when we will no longer have children born with sickle cell anemia because their parents were unaware that they carried the gene for this condition," said Ms. Anderson.

Ms. Anderson succeeds Dorothy H. Boswell, who retired after leading the organization since its founding in 1971.

Eliot Neighborhood Association Present Gospel Music Festival

On Saturday, September 12th from 1:00 to 6:00 P.M., the 2nd annual all gospel music neighborhood festival will take place on the lawns of Emanuel Hospital at North Russell and North Williams. The Eliot Neighborhood Gospel Music Festival will reflect the talents and vitality of the community by featuring ten of Eliot's gospel choirs. The Eliot neighborhood has more churches per capita than any other neighborhood in the City.

Sponsored jointly by the Eliot Neighborhood Association, the Portland Trailblazers, and the Urban League of Portland, the event will highlight the many positive aspects of the Eliot Neighborhood. Pacific Power, Streimer Sheet Metal, Inc. and Interprint, Inc. have also made contributions in support of the music festival.

The festival is free to the public. Food, drink, and "Gospel on the Green" T-shirts will be available for purchase. Everyone is encouraged to come and join in shining a light on Eliot while enjoying the movable sounds of the "Gospel on the Green."
