Volunteer Training Program At The West's Women's And Children's Shelter

The Salvation Army's West Women's and Children's Shelter is again offering its volunteer training program beginning Saturday, October 3, 1992. The program includes four Saturday morning sessions (from 9 a.m. to noon) and three Thursday evening sessions (from 6:00 p.m. to 9 p.m.). These sessions cover such topics as Domestic Violence; Drug and Alcohol Abuse; Crisis and Suicide Intervention; Rape, Sexual Abuse and Incest; Mental Health; Post Traumatic Stress Disorder; and Oppression. The sessions will be held at the West, 2010 N.W. Kearney, Portland.

More than 220 volunteers have participated in the training program since it began in December of 1988. These volunteers provide essential services to the nearly 60 women and children who call the West "home." The diverse programs at the West can utilize a wide array of volunteer interests or time schedules. Volunteer opportunities are available with children, adults or low-client-contact projects.

The West is a program of The Salvation Army Harbor Light Recovery Road.

Rev. Roy Tate & His Wife Being Honored

Reverend Roy L. Tate, and his wife, Missionary Dianne G. Tate

The Christ Memorial Church Of God In Christ members and friends, are pleased to announce the celebration of their Pastor, Reverend Roy L. Tate, and his wife, Missionary Dianne G. Tate's 11th anniversary.

Reverend and Missionary Tate began their church 11 years ago, at a store front location on Skidmore and Mississippi.

In the infancy of Christ memorial Church, their members consisted of all children. They began to pray for the parents of those children to come and be members of the church. When their prayers were answered, the parents that came were drug addicts, prostitutes, gamblers, alcoholics, pimps, drug dealers, etc. It was at this time the Lord gave Pastor Tate the vision of the J.A.D.A Program, Jesus Against Drugs & Alcohol. Through this ministry many of those same people have found salvation and deliverance from drugs, alcohol, immorality, and sin. These same members have gone on to become elders, missionaries, ministers, deacons, and leaders of The Christ Memorial Church.

Reverend Tate, a prominent leader in the community, works with others to combat gangs, drugs, and crime. Missionary Tate works for Multnomah County as a correction officer, at the Justice Center. Reverend Tate is the Executive Secretary for the Churches Of God In Christ, Oregon Jurisdiction #1; where Missionary Tate is president of the Minister's Wives.

The congregation invites the community to come and share in this joyous occasion, as they honor these two fine people of God, that have labored diligently and faithfully. On Thursday night, Reverend Johnny Pack IV of Fellowship Baptist Church will be the main speaker. Friday night will be Bishop Samuel Irving of Albina Church Of God, and Sunday afternoon will be Bishop A. A. Wells of Emmanuel Temple Full Gospel Pentecostal Church. In addition, many other pastors, churches, and choirs will be in attendance. The services will be October 1 thru 4, 1992; and will be held at the Christ Memorial Church, 1552 N. Killingsworth. Services will begin nightly at 7:00PM, and at 3:30PM on Sunday. That Saturday at 6PM, The Members will hold a celebration dinner located at J.J. North's.

All are welcome to come out and celebrate with The Christ Memorial Church as they honor this fine pastor and his wife.
